Look at the two lamps

A · Diya

B · Hanukkiah (nine lights)

Picture A is a bowl-shaped diya lamp. Picture B is a hanukkiah with eight festival lights and a raised helper light.

Use the drawings with cards D, H and O. Ask before touching a borrowed object. Use an unlit copy for the task.

Evidence cards D and H

D · Diwali

Many Hindus use lamps, pray and meet for Diwali. Light can stand for good winning over bad and for learning.

People mark Diwali in more than one way.

H · Hanukkah

Hanukkah is a Jewish festival. Its lights recall the Temple being made ready for worship again and a story about oil lasting eight nights. The lamp stand has eight festival lights and a helper light.

People mark Hanukkah in more than one way.

Evidence cards O and S

O · Objects and meanings

A diya is a small lamp used at Diwali. A hanukkiah is used at Hanukkah. Ask before you touch a borrowed object. Use a drawing or an unlit copy.

Use the card or ask a person who knows. Shape can give a clue.

S · One family’s plan

In this made-up plan, a family gets a place ready, sets out unlit lamps with an adult, gathers to pray and shares food and greetings.

This is one plan. Other homes may do things in a different order.

Shared investigation

Look at both drawings. Say what you see, what you think and what you wonder. Agree a rule for looking at a borrowed object.

1. What can you see on the diya?
2. What can you see on the hanukkiah?
3. What does card O help us match?

Step	Ask
See	What can I point to?
Think	Which card can help me?
Wonder	What would I like to ask?

Our explanation

Optional · respond to feedback together

Optional: show an adult one detail or card clue. Hear one piece of feedback. Reply with a change, a reason to keep it or a request for help.

Worked model

Look first

A small bowl shape on the diya. The raised helper light.

Ask first

Ask the owner and follow their rule. Use a drawing or an unlit copy.

Check the card

It is a small lamp used at Diwali. People use it at Hanukkah.

Say what I know

No. Use a card or ask someone who knows. I can see a bowl shape. Card O says the diya is used at Diwali.
