Festivals of light around the world

Humanities · GROW · Autumn 2 · Week 4 · HUM-GROW-A2-W04

Staff card

Staff print card

3 November 2026

Invite a response. Give thinking time. The learner may pass.

Arrival regulation check: Green · Ready, Amber · Help, Red · Pause. Say the words as well as showing the colours. Invite a response and allow a pass.

Code	Meaning
VF	Verbal feedback
WS	Worked with support
I	Independent
NS + …	Next step
E	Evidence captured
R	Pupil responded to feedback
//	Self-edit point
?	Read this back to me

At check-out, record E for … against the pupil's target.

Mark R only after the pupil has responded to feedback with an adult.

Return-to-learning route for this lesson: after a pause, rejoin Supported with the locator and card D, then point to one feature.

Soft instrumental music for transitions if the class plan says so

Sound is off by default.

Pupils edit in the same colour, on the same page.

Made by Matt

Humanities · GROW · Autumn 2 · Week 4 · HUM-GROW-A2-W04

P17 · SLT planning and evaluation

Investigate festivals of light around the world with a Geography link.

Stage	Minutes
Arrival including opening	4
Starter	3
I do	6
We do shared investigation	7
We do decision checkpoint	2
You do	12
Review and improve	3
Exit ticket	3

Planned adaptations

Need	Plan
Read or sequence	Use one card and one short instruction.
Communicate	Allow a private point, sign, spoken answer or exact scribing.
Pause and return	Return-to-learning route for this lesson: after a pause, rejoin Supported with the locator and card D, then point to one feature.
Access the drawing	Use the larger view or describe the marked features.

Catch-up embedded this lesson: revisit how a link can cross places in Starter and check one source meaning in I do.

If behind

Keep one model clue, one shared check, the checkpoint, a book response and the exit. Shorten repeated practice.

Staff evaluation

Evidence, adaptation and next teaching move

Made by Matt

P18 · Individual target opportunities

Use the learner’s actual agreed target.

Opportunity	Evidence	Actual support
Find a clue	Select a card detail.	_____
Explain	Link evidence to the answer.	_____
Check	Keep or revise one detail.	_____
Regulate	Use a pause or a private response.	_____

The teacher models one step. A second adult, if available, reads a card or records the exact response. With one adult, set out the card and return for the pupil’s reason.

Give time, point to a clue, ask a short question, then offer a frame or choice. Invite a response. The learner may pass.

Made by Matt

Humanities · GROW · Autumn 2 · Week 4 · HUM-GROW-A2-W04

First lesson back · once-only read

Check what pupils can show from the previous lesson and revisit it within the planned stage.

Use the supplied examples. Invite a response, give thinking time and allow a pass. Use only the learner’s own evidence.

Made by Matt

Teacher answers · Arrival

Arrival · Supported

Point to the picture that matches the top one.

The lower left picture matches the top one.

Arrival · Supported

Which meaning fits festival?

A special period of celebration or remembrance

Arrival · Supported

Does Diwali belong to only one country?

No. Communities observe it in several countries.

Arrival · Supported

What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning?

A credited account from people or organisations explaining the observance.

Arrival · Independent

Point to the picture that matches the top one.

The lower left picture matches the top one.

Arrival · Independent

Which meaning fits festival?

A special period of celebration or remembrance

Made by Matt

Arrival · Independent

Does Diwali belong to only one country?

No. Communities observe it in several countries.

Arrival · Independent

What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning?

A credited account from people or organisations explaining the observance.

Arrival · Aspire

Point to the picture that matches the top one.

The lower left picture matches the top one.

Arrival · Aspire

Use festival in an accurate example.

A festival is a special time to celebrate or remember. Card D shows how many Hindus celebrate the festival of Diwali with lamps, worship and gatherings.

Arrival · Aspire

Does Diwali belong to only one country? Which detail supports your answer?

No. Communities observe it in several countries. The shared map task uses Country B and Country A to compare examples, and Card D identifies lamps and gatherings as Diwali practices.

Arrival · Aspire

What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning?

A credited account from people or organisations explaining the observance.

Made by Matt

Starter

Where can you locate Country A and Country B?

Country A is in Continent 1. Country B is in Continent 2.

Starter

What can light mean in card D?

It can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

Starter

Does Diwali belong to only one country?

No. Communities mark it in several countries.

Starter

What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning?

Use a credited account and quote or paraphrase one relevant detail.

I do · 1

Does Diwali belong to only one country?

No. Communities mark it in several countries.

I do · 1

Which source helps us begin?

Use card D. Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

Made by Matt

I do · 2

Which detail in the card can help with the question?

Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

I do · 2

What does this clue help us say?

A map can locate an example. A credited account helps explain what the practice means to people.

I do · 3

How could I explain the link?

Use a map marker for the location and a source label for the practice and its meaning.

I do · 3

How can I start my answer?

I locate the example at ____. Card ____ describes ____. It can mean ____.

I do · 4

What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning?

Use a credited account and quote or paraphrase one relevant detail.

I do · 4

What is one limit to keep in mind?

A map marker cannot establish everyone’s religion or how they celebrate.

Made by Matt

We do

Which source describes Diwali?

Card D.

We do

Which source describes the Hanukkah lights?

Card H.

We do

What can a map add to the comparison?

It can show examples in more than one place, while the cards explain meanings.

We do

Which clue will you use?

Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

We do

What is one limit?

A map marker cannot establish everyone’s religion or how they celebrate.

We do decision checkpoint

Which choice fits the evidence?

The example has a location.

Made by Matt

We do decision checkpoint

What evidence helps you decide?

The marker shows one place. Use cards D and H to support a claim about meaning.

Made by Matt

Teacher answers · You do

You do · Supported

Check the detail you used.

Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

You do · Supported

Check your reason or limit.

A map can locate an example. A credited account helps explain what the practice means to people. A map marker cannot establish everyone’s religion or how they celebrate.

You do · Independent

Check the detail you used.

Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

You do · Independent

Check your reason or limit.

A map can locate an example. A credited account helps explain what the practice means to people. A map marker cannot establish everyone’s religion or how they celebrate.

You do · Aspire

Check the detail you used.

Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

You do · Aspire

Check your reason or limit.

A map can locate an example. A credited account helps explain what the practice means to people. A map marker cannot establish everyone’s religion or how they celebrate.

Made by Matt

You do · Choice

Check the detail you used.

Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

You do · Choice

Check your reason or limit.

A map can locate an example. A credited account helps explain what the practice means to people. A map marker cannot establish everyone’s religion or how they celebrate.

Made by Matt

Review and improve

Is my detail accurate?

Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

Review and improve

Does my reason follow from the source?

A map can locate an example. A credited account helps explain what the practice means to people.

Review and improve

What could I check or change?

A map marker cannot establish everyone’s religion or how they celebrate. Edit in the same colour, on the same page.

Exit · Supported

Does Diwali belong to only one country?

No. Communities mark it in several countries.

Exit · Supported

What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning?

Use a credited account and quote or paraphrase one relevant detail.

Exit · Independent

Does Diwali belong to only one country?

No. Communities mark it in several countries.

Made by Matt

Exit · Independent

What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning?

Use a credited account and quote or paraphrase one relevant detail.

Exit · Aspire

Does Diwali belong to only one country? Use one clue.

No. Communities mark it in several countries. Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

Exit · Aspire

What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning?

Use a credited account and quote or paraphrase one relevant detail. A map marker cannot establish everyone’s religion or how they celebrate.

Exit · Choice

Point, draw, sign or tell an adult. Does Diwali belong to only one country?

No. Communities mark it in several countries.

Exit · Choice

What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning?

Use a credited account and quote or paraphrase one relevant detail.

Made by Matt

Humanities · GROW · Autumn 2 · Week 4 · HUM-GROW-A2-W04

TA Brief

Investigate festivals of light around the world with a Geography link.

Arrival regulation check: Green · Ready, Amber · Help, Red · Pause. Say the words as well as showing the colours. Invite a response and allow a pass.

Use the supplied examples. Invite a response, give thinking time and allow a pass. Use only the learner’s own evidence.

Return-to-learning route for this lesson: after a pause, rejoin Supported with the locator and card D, then point to one feature.

Optional: show one map marker and source clue to an adult. Hear one piece of feedback. Reply with a change, a reason to keep it or a request for help.

Use one route. Record only the pupil’s own response and the support given. Next lesson: Comparing belief and celebration.

Made by Matt

Humanities · GROW · Autumn 2 · Week 4 · HUM-GROW-A2-W04

Teaching script · Arrival including opening

Use one Arrival route. Let pupils match the picture before reading the other prompts. Give time to think and allow a pass. Arrival regulation check: Green · Ready, Amber · Help, Red · Pause. Say the words as well as showing the colours. Invite a response and allow a pass.

Made by Matt

Teaching script · Starter

Use the drawing to ask: Where can you locate Country A and Country B? What can light mean in card D? Catch-up embedded this lesson: revisit how a link can cross places in Starter and check one source meaning in I do.

Catch-up embedded this lesson: revisit how a link can cross places in Starter and check one source meaning in I do.

Made by Matt

Teaching script · I do

Ask Does Diwali belong to only one country? Point to card D. Think aloud: No. Communities mark it in several countries. Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance. Check: What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning? Use a credited account and quote or paraphrase one relevant detail.

Made by Matt

Humanities · GROW · Autumn 2 · Week 4 · HUM-GROW-A2-W04

Teaching script · We do shared investigation

Locate Country B and the Country A, then compare festival source details. Discuss why a celebration can be observed in several places. Take a turn to suggest a match, then check the evidence. Ask for a clue. Card D.

Made by Matt

Humanities · GROW · Autumn 2 · Week 4 · HUM-GROW-A2-W04

Teaching script · We do decision checkpoint

Offer a private choice. A map has one marker beside a festival example. Which claim is supported? Reveal: The example has a location. The marker shows one place. Use cards D and H to support a claim about meaning. Optional: show one map marker and source clue to an adult. Hear one piece of feedback. Reply with a change, a reason to keep it or a request for help. Mark R only after the pupil has responded to feedback with an adult.

Made by Matt

Teaching script · You do

Select one route. Start in your book. Locate one festival example on a map. Retain the learner’s own map marker and source clue and actual support used. Return-to-learning route for this lesson: after a pause, rejoin Supported with the locator and card D, then point to one feature.

Made by Matt

Teaching script · Review and improve

Check one evidence detail. A map can locate an example. A credited account helps explain what the practice means to people. Ask for one improvement or reason to keep the detail.

Made by Matt

Teaching script · Exit ticket

Use the two exit questions. Does Diwali belong to only one country? What supports an explanation of a festival’s meaning? Accept accurate equivalents and plan the next prompt. At check-out, record E for … against the pupil's target.

Explain one idea in your own words.

Check a source. Show what it says about your idea.

What helped you most today, or what would you change next time?

Made by Matt