Evidence cards D and H

D · Diwali

Many Hindus mark Diwali with lamps, worship and gatherings. Light can express good overcoming evil and knowledge overcoming ignorance. Practices and stories vary.

This Hindu explanation does not cover every Hindu practice or other religions' observances.

H · Hanukkah

Hanukkah is a Jewish festival lasting eight nights. Lights recall the Temple's rededication and the traditional account of oil lasting eight days. A hanukkiah has eight festival lights and a helper light.

This explains one Jewish religious perspective; not all Jewish households observe identically.

Evidence cards O and S

O · Objects and meanings

A diya is a small lamp associated with Diwali. A hanukkiah is used at Hanukkah. Ask before touching borrowed objects; use an unlit replica or a drawing.

This example does not describe every person or place.

S · One family’s celebration plan

Fictional Diwali plan: prepare a welcoming space; arrange unlit lamps with an adult; gather for worship; share food and greetings. This is one sequence, not a rule for every family.

This example does not describe every person or place.

Shared investigation

Locate Country B and the Country A, then compare festival source details. Discuss why a celebration can be observed in several places. Take a turn to suggest a match, then check the evidence.

1. Which source describes Diwali?
2. Which source describes the Hanukkah lights?
3. What can a map add to the comparison?

Ask the question

No. Communities mark it in several countries. Use card D. Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance.

Find the evidence

Card D describes lamps, worship and gatherings at Diwali. Light can express good overcoming evil or knowledge overcoming ignorance. A map can locate an example. A credited account helps explain what the practice means to people.

Explain the link

Use a map marker for the location and a source label for the practice and its meaning. I locate the example at ____. Card ____ describes ____. It can mean ____.

Check what we know

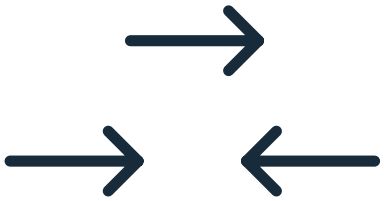

Use a credited account and quote or paraphrase one relevant detail. A map marker cannot establish everyone’s religion or how they celebrate.
