Evidence cards A and B

A · Two priorities

Fictional case: the pupil leaving early puts family first and leaves a club early for a family meal. the pupil who stays puts commitment first and stays to the end. Neither is wrong.

This example does not describe every person, family or community.

B · A respectful response

The pupil who stays says, “Hope the meal is good.” He respects a value he does not share.

This example does not describe every person, family or community.

Evidence cards C and D

C · A disrespectful response

A team-mate says, “You’re letting us down for a dinner?” This mocks the pupil leaving early’s value.

This example does not describe every person, family or community.

D · Respect is not agreement

You can respect a person’s right to their values without agreeing. Respect has limits: it never means accepting harm.

Hard cases need a trusted adult, not a slogan.
