Key words & studio mat — Planning the piece: four composition choices

Pathway: TRACK · Week 3 Part 1 · Big question: How do four deliberate choices — focal point, palette, background pattern, and medium — shape an identity piece?

Key words for ART_GROW_A1_W03_P1 (TRACK)

COMPOSITION — How shapes, lines, and colours are arranged inside the frame.

FOCAL POINT — The main area of high contrast that pulls the viewer's eye first.

THUMBNAIL — A small rapid sketch used to test layout ideas before working big.

COMPLEMENTARY — Colours opposite each other on the colour wheel that create bold contrast.

BALANCE — Arranging visual weight so the picture feels stable and purposeful.

Sentence starters for studio talk

- I chose this tool so my mark looks...
- The strongest dark and light contrast is...
- Next time I will test...