Starter and method strip

Starter

What has happened to the paper?

In your book: Give one short reply or mark. You may pass.

Method

Watch one step at a time.

I link the words to the act. “Sorry I drew on your card” names the harm. Offering a new card helps repair it. The owner still gets a choice.

In your book: Keep one useful word or model step. Mark it Model. Do not copy the whole slide.

Case sources

Use the case detail. A made-up case is not a real person's story.

Made-up case: A person bumps a table by mistake. A stack of someone else's paper falls.

The person says, "I am sorry I knocked your paper down." They ask if help is wanted. The owner says yes. The person helps stack the paper.

The owner does not have to say it is fine or forgive. They may still feel upset. No one has to share a real mistake.

Cut-out cards and guided record

We Do

Show one act that helps put this mistake right. Link it to sorry. Show how the other person keeps a choice.

Have a quiet try before the class check. You may pass.

Guided record: My first try [ ] / My own word or mark [ ] / My check [ ].

In your book: Keep one guided try and one word or mark of your own.

Main source — story/case cards

Made-up case: A person bumps a table by mistake. A stack of someone else's paper falls.

The person says, "I am sorry I knocked your paper down." They ask if help is wanted. The owner says yes. The person helps stack the paper.

The owner does not have to say it is fine or forgive. They may still feel upset. No one has to share a real mistake.

Picture access — Starter observation

Paper lies by a table. One person has an open hand and a speech bubble. A second picture shows paper stacked again. This is an invented case.

Model source — I Do only

Made-up model case: A person draws on someone else's card by mistake. They name what they did, say sorry and offer a new blank card. The owner chooses the new card.

Class source — We Do only

Made-up class case: A person talks over someone's turn. They say sorry, stop and offer the turn back. The other person chooses whether to speak now.

Recall strip — after the first Arrival try only

Keep covered until after the first try.

We chose returning the shape card as fair. Hiding it stopped the owner using their work. We judged the act, not the whole person.
