Case sources

Use the case detail. A made-up case is not a real person's story.

Made-up club case: A person is sorting a set of picture cards. The cards are mixed up. They say they would like some help.

A helper could ask what sort of help is wanted, then help in that way. The person can change their mind.

You may plan for the made-up helper. You need not tell us about your life or promise to do the act. Quiet reflection is a choice, not worship.
