My apprenticeship fact card

Use a made-up profile. Work in your book, with an aid, or use Type instead. An adult can read or write your words.

Two choices
Choose B woodwork or C food making. You may choose for a made-up person. This is not a future job decision.

Find four facts
Use the profile to find pay, training, employer and entry need. Use the labels and pictures. Read one field at a time.

Explain earn and learn
“An apprentice gets pay for work and learns through training.” Use your words, the pictures or your aid to show both parts.

One thing to apply
Choose one thing from Entry need or To apply. “For this made-up role, I would need to ... .” Show the words you used.

Our model A
A works on bikes for pay and has planned lessons and practice. The employer is a small bike repair workshop. A needs to read a short safety note. A can use a short form to apply.

Words and starts
pay · work · learn · train · need · apply

“My card is ... . The sector is ... .” “I earn ... and learn ... .”
