My question and choice

Get one question ready. Use your book, point, type or use your aid. An adult can read or write your words.

Two choices
Pick a ready question on Card 1, or build one from a topic. Practise it with an adult. You do not need to speak to the whole group.

Ask and listen
Ask the question in your usual way. An adult may voice the card you choose. Listen to the answer. You can ask, “Please say that again.”

Keep a short record
Write the date and provider type. Add your question and the answer. Mark real encounter, staff role-play or pending. Use a new record for each talk. No names.

Could it suit me
Choose yes, maybe or no in private. All three are fine. Show one thing you heard. You may add, “It might suit me because ... .” You do not have to share a private reason.

Still to check
If you do not know, write “not known yet”. Keep one next question. Do not make up an answer. If a visit is still to come, leave its answer and choice pending.

Help in private
Use a trusted adult or the school’s help route. Point to HELP or ask for a private talk. You may pass, pause and return. Keep private worries out of this record.

Type instead

Use one record for each talk. No names. If it has not happened, leave the answer and choice blank. Mark pending.

No choice is right or wrong. A pass means not seen yet. A staff role-play is practice, not a real visit. E: work saved. R: Voice, Audience, NS and reply. Add to Careers Portfolio. Offer to Communication portfolio.
