TA brief

Prepare the word-and-symbol cards, shape cards and colour cards described here before the lesson; no external image, named resource or screen interaction is needed. Read pupil wording aloud, one short prompt at a time. All response choices apply to EVERY question, demonstration response, shared task, route, review and Exit: pupils may point, speak, sign, use symbols, draw or write. A pupil may direct an adult to place a shape or move a card. Offer a silent director role throughout; do not require making marks, touching materials or speaking to the group. Never cold call. Any pupil may pass. A pass needs no book entry.

Use one Arrival tier and one Exit tier per pupil. Keep Answer (adult) lines out of pupil view until the response. The three Exit checks are brief choices or short responses, not three extended written answers. Allow private thinking before any shared reveal. An adult may record the pupil's own choice, gesture or exact words. No board copying, cutting or gluing is needed in the timed stages.

Festival context: light and colour are ways some people celebrate. People within a tradition may celebrate in different ways. These are original, made-up classroom pictures of light shapes, not copies of any tradition's sacred images. Never ask about a pupil's belief, family, worship or loss. Discuss the shapes and colours in these pictures, not personal disclosure.

Materials safety and access: use pencils, pastels or chalk, coloured and dark paper, and optional glue. Any scissors are used with adult care; prepare cut shapes in advance so cutting is never required. Use no flames. Keep chalk on the paper and do not blow dust. Announce each short task, use a predictable short count-in with a matching hand gesture, and show a flat hand for STOP. At STOP, pause marks or card moves and rest tools on the table. A pupil can choose the silent director role, a quiet place or a pause without explaining why. Offer large, clearly spaced shapes and describe their colour and position; do not infer lack of art understanding from a visual or motor access need.

TA brief

Kit and stimulus: Make the following simple examples yourself with the permitted materials. Use no named artists, artworks or sacred images. Prepare DOT / RING / RAY / LAMP cards: dot = a filled round spot; ring = a round line with an empty middle; ray = one short straight line; lamp = a plain oval outline with three short rays above it, with no flame. A lamp here is only a made-up drawn sign for a light. Prepare matching bright yellow, pink and light blue colour cards, dark paper and pale yellow paper. Say the colour names aloud when offering them. Each pupil needs shape cards and a small space to arrange a trial pattern, or may direct an adult.

Adult-made Example A: On a dark rectangle, place six large, evenly spaced marks in one straight row: yellow dot / pink ring / yellow dot / pink ring / yellow dot / pink ring. Keep every dot the same size and every ring the same size. The two-mark unit is a yellow dot followed by a pink ring, repeated three times.

Adult-made Example B: On a dark rectangle, place four identical lamp signs in one straight row. Each has a yellow oval outline and three light blue rays above it. Leave clear space between the signs. One whole lamp sign repeats four times; there are two colours. These lamps are drawn marks, not real lights.

Adult-made Example C: Put the same large yellow dot on two equal small rectangles, one dark and one pale yellow. Use the same yellow for each dot and keep their size the same. The yellow dot should be easier to see against the dark paper. Check that this is clear in the room before use; describe the difference and offer close viewing or a large version if needed. This comparison concerns the yellow dot, not all possible colours.

Adult-only EHCP note: Possible outcome areas are communication and interaction; cognition and learning; sensory and physical access; social, emotional and mental health. Link observations only to an actual individual target; do not infer an outcome from participation alone. Regulation strategy: use the announced count-in and visible STOP cue, with an agreed silent return to the next small task if the pupil needs a pause.

TA brief

Same-day evidence — ART-BUILD-A2-W01-P1: The assigned adult records one chosen book item or a brief observation of the pupil's own response, response mode and actual prompt used, and uploads it to the evidence app the same day, labelled ART-BUILD-A2-W01-P1. Take a photo of the trial pattern with a scribed line or the pupil's own comment for the pupil's Discover log; a photo alone does not show understanding. Do not require a public display.

1. Set out the adult-made examples, the word-and-symbol cards and the shape/colour cards; show the silent director role before making marks.

2. Offer one tier and one prompt at a time; accept point, speech, sign, symbols, drawing or writing and allow a pass.

3. In We do, give each pupil time to decide before the shared cards move; record their own shape and repeat choices.

4. Help pupils choose shapes and bright colours for their art; never ask for belief, family or loss.

5. Keep a brief record of the shape, colours, repeat and actual support; give a small review step and upload the evidence to the evidence app the same day, labelled ART-BUILD-A2-W01-P1.

Arrival · 5 minutes

Adult note: Show the dot, ring, ray and lamp cards, then Examples A and B. Briefly name each shape without asking pupils to read. Describe each example in the order specified above. Invite four brief responses in one tier. The cards and Examples A and B are supplied clues, not a test of prior learning. Keep STOP as the agreed pause routine.

Starter · 3 minutes

Adult note: Give thinking time; every pupil chooses before the answer is shared. Show both samples together and describe their grounds if helpful.

I do · 6 minutes

Adult note: Spend four minutes showing the shapes, repeating a pair and comparing Example C, then two minutes on the four words and a pupil choice. Use large cards or draw the marks. Pupils may direct the shapes instead of making marks.

TA brief

Adult note: Point to one complete repeat unit, then to its next occurrence. The images represent light with marks; no real lamp or flame is needed. Show a shape choice and two or three bright colour choices together as a plan for the next lesson.

Adult note: Show each must-know word on a card with the word and a simple symbol, and read it aloud: shape (a dot and a ring), bright (a yellow dot on dark paper), pattern (dot, ring, dot, ring), repeat (an arrow from the first pair to the next).

We do · 8 minutes

Adult note: Allow two minutes for the guided example, four for every pupil's shape and repeat choices and two for the colour plan. Each pupil has shape and colour cards or points to their own choices. The adult or a volunteer moves the shared cards only after everyone has had private thinking time.

Adult note: A third colour means revising the unit to include a third mark before repeating it. For example, yellow dot / pink dot / light blue dot repeated once. Each pupil makes or directs a short trial, then retains their own shape and colour choices. Use any response mode. Never ask a pupil what their own festival or family does.

You do · 15 minutes

Adult note: Two minutes to choose and set up; eleven minutes to explore or direct and record; final two minutes to review one choice. Use small trial patterns rather than a finished artwork. Offer the same shape and colour choices to all pupils. The silent director role is available in every route. During review give one precise success and one next step; name the pupil's choice back to them before you record it; the pupil may make one change in any response mode.

the adult marks I (Independent), S (Supported) or C (Choice) and records actual support. For Aspire, record I or S according to the support used. For C, record the choice and the pupil's one word, phrase or reason.

Exit ticket · 3 minutes

Adult note: Use one tier and the shape/colour cards with Examples A–C. Invite a brief response to each check, then retain one record. There is no requirement to make another pattern.

TA brief · feedback and prompt ladder

Prompt ladder for adults

1. Point to the relevant place / instruction.
2. Ask one short question: "What is it asking you to find?"
3. Rephrase the instruction in simpler language.
4. Provide a scaffold or limited choice.
5. Model the first step only, then return the task to the pupil.

No cold calling; nobody is asked to read difficult text aloud.

Space: allow quiet thinking and a private response.

Feedback [VF] [NS]: name one success and one change against the art criteria.

Voice [//]: retain the pupil's own mark, choice, artwork or explanation, with their actual support.

Audience: record the pupil's comment; listen to any clip in full before tagging. Name the choice back and mark [R] only after receipt and a next step.

Influence: use the photo and comment in the Discover log to check the next skill.

Use [WS] for supported work and [I] for independent work. Use [?] to invite a read-back and [//] for a self-edit.

Evidence [E] · ART-BUILD-A2-W01-P1: the assigned adult uploads the selected book item, artwork photo with its observation, or exact response to the evidence app the same day, labelled ART-BUILD-A2-W01-P1. Capture is not closure; a photo alone does not establish understanding.

Staff: mark I, S or C beside the You do response for actual independence, support or choice.
