Protest and rights pupil resources

Friday 8 January 2027 | P2 | 40 minutes | Year A

Humanities | GROW | Spring 1 Week 1 | HUM-GROW-S1-W01

Learning outcome: Place key protest/rights events on a timeline (chronology).

You may point, write, type, speak privately or direct a scribe. Reading aloud and public answers are optional. You may pass.

Class card sort

Use the five large event cards. Read the year first. Move the complete date-and-event pair to the right place. Work on a table or the board. You may direct an adult to move your choice.

Date Finder chooses a date and says which year comes first. Event Checker keeps the date and event together and checks the source card. Swap after one turn. Each pupil then makes an individual five-event strip.

Place	What belongs here
1	Date and event pair
2	Date and event pair
3	Date and event pair
4	Date and event pair
5	Date and event pair

Earliest is place 1. Latest is place 5. These places show order, not equal gaps in time.

A date check

Does 5 December 1955 come before or after 28 August 1963? Check the years first. Give your own reason privately or in your book.

Your own strip of five

Use one set of these labels for each pupil. Cut or use ready-cut labels. Put all five in time order in your book. Keep each date with its event. Do not copy a partner strip without checking it.

Cut out each full pair	Date and event stay together
2 July 1964	Civil Rights Act | United States | E4
6 February 1918	Votes for some women | UK | E1
6 August 1965	Voting Rights Act | United States | E5
5 December 1955	Bus boycott starts | United States | E2
28 August 1963	March on Washington | United States | E3

My check

I kept all five date-and-event pairs. I checked the years. I gave one reason using a date. I can show the help I used.

Use the agreed quiet signal to ask the adult for a pause. Use the usual supervised place. No public reason is needed. Rejoin with one date check or a private recap. A neutral task with number cards is available.

Teacher-written factual summaries for learning. These are not historical quotations, testimony or archive extracts.
