Word	Meaning
account	A piece of writing explaining what happened and why it mattered.
background	The setting that helps us understand events.
cause	A reason why something happened.
trigger	An event that helps set off action.
chronology	Events placed in time order.
consequence	An effect or result of an event or action.
significance	How and why something matters in history.
paragraph	A group of sentences about one main part of the account.
connective	A word or phrase that links ideas.
boycott	Not using or buying something as a protest.
segregation	Rules that keep groups apart unfairly.
plaintiff	A person who brings a case to court.

Plan in any language. Because gives a reason; however adds a limit. Dates help the reader follow time order.
