Visual step cards

Year A | Autumn 2 Week 2 | 9 November 2026

I can make a clear document with a title, headings and short paragraphs.

Plan the sections: Choose source A or B. Sort the facts into topics.

Set the title and headings: Use a title and two main heading styles.

Write the paragraphs: Put short sentences about one topic together.

Check and save: Ask a reader to find a fact. Save and reopen your file.

Use only the made-up source facts. Keep real personal details out.

Year A | Autumn 2 Week 2 | 9 November 2026

I can make a clear document with a title, headings and short paragraphs.

A model-making group

Who can join

Beginners can join. No skill is needed yet.

What we do

We sketch ideas. We build paper models.

I used a title for the whole page.

I used two main heading styles.

I grouped facts in two short paragraphs.

I checked my facts and full stops.

I reopened my saved file and checked the text.

Use title and heading styles to give text a role. Keep body text left aligned. Use one topic per paragraph. Read the page before you share it.

Fictional source cards

Year A | Autumn 2 Week 2 | 9 November 2026

Choose one made-up group. Create a welcome sheet for someone who may join. Use the facts below. Do not invent a place, contact, fee or meeting time.

Source A A model-making group

Joining facts: Beginners can join. No skill is needed yet.

Activity facts: We sketch ideas. We build paper models.

Extra facts: We take turns with the materials. We share ideas respectfully.

Source B A music group

Joining facts: Beginners can join. You can start with a simple beat.

Activity facts: We listen to short tunes. We clap and copy rhythms.

Extra facts: We take turns to lead. We listen when another person has a turn.

Sort before you type

Choose a title. Group the facts under Who can join and What we do. Keep the extra facts for a stretch section.
