

What is a career? My journey so far

Autumn 1 · Lesson 1 · How is a career bigger than one job?

Name (optional): _____ Date: _____

Show your ideas by writing, drawing, pointing or speaking. An adult can record your words.

You may use a fictional character. You can pass on a personal question and still practise the skill.

1. Sort six cards

Write a heading beside each card; explain one choice.

- Electrician
- College course
- Café worker
- Learning a design program
- Friend
- Club organiser

2. Make a three-step journey

Use Casey or a safe example of your own.

- Past: something learned or tried.
 - Now: an activity or learning step.
 - Possible future: something to explore; “not sure yet” is allowed.

My learning record

Lesson 1 · Continue your thinking

3. Record a starting point

Choose clear idea / several ideas / not sure yet, then finish one sentence.

- I might explore... because...
- One question I want to ask is...

Useful words

job: A particular work role a person does. / career: A journey through learning, work and life experiences. / experience: Something a person does, learns or takes part in. / aspiration: Something a person might want to achieve or explore.

Exit check

Explain job and career using Casey or another example.

My next step

One thing I can practise or improve:

Adult record: response method _____ support _____ evidence _____

My strengths

Autumn 1 · Lesson 2 · How can an example show a strength?

Name (optional): _____ Date: _____

Show your ideas by writing, drawing, pointing or speaking. An adult can record your words.

You may use a fictional character. You can pass on a personal question and still practise the skill.

1. Choose three strengths

Choose for yourself or the fictional learner Rowan.

- Strength bank: reliable, organised, creative, patient, practical, helpful, careful, persistent.
- Rowan sorted project cards, checked every label and tried a second layout after the first did not fit.

2. Match action to strength

Choose a strength and underline the action that supports it.

- Alex labelled the three trays they agreed to prepare.
- Sam checked the recipe when a step seemed missing.
- Taylor used a prompt card and continued after difficulty.

My learning record

Lesson 2 · Continue your thinking

3. Prove one strength

Write, draw or explain an example. Mark it personal example or fictional case.

- The strength is...
- The person did...
- This supports the strength because...

Useful words

strength: Something a person does well or is developing confidence in. / skill: An ability learned and practised. / evidence: A specific example that supports a claim. / reliable: Follows through on an agreed task or communicates when plans change.

Exit check

Name three strengths and give an example for one.

My next step

One thing I can practise or improve:

Adult record: response method _____ support _____ evidence _____

My interests and working preferences

Autumn 1 · Lesson 3 · What do I enjoy, and what helps me work?

Name (optional): _____ Date: _____

Show your ideas by writing, drawing, pointing or speaking. An adult can record your words.

You may use a fictional character. You can pass on a personal question and still practise the skill.

1. Select interests

Choose three for yourself or Sam. Add a curiosity if you are unsure.

- Making; drawing; digital tools; cooking; sport; nature; helping; fixing; music; organising.
- Sam: draws maps, explains a program and enjoys solving small software problems.

2. Choose how to work

For each pair write left / right / mix / unsure. Explain two choices.

- Indoors or outdoors.
- With people or independently.
- Hands-on tasks or desk/computer tasks.
- Routine or variety.
- Calmer or busier setting.
- Predictable hours or changing hours.

My learning record

Lesson 3 · Continue your thinking

3. Make an exploration card

Link an interest or preference to something worth finding out.

- I might explore... because...
- I still need to know...

Useful words

interest: An activity or topic a person enjoys or wants to explore. / preference: A way of working someone tends to choose. / condition: Something about a place or task, such as noise or routine. / explore: Find out more before deciding.

Exit check

Give two preference choices and one reason, or explain what would help you decide.

My next step

One thing I can practise or improve:

Adult record: response method _____ support _____ evidence _____

Values, belonging and the workplace

Autumn 1 · Lesson 4 · What helps people feel respected and able to take part?

Name (optional): _____ Date: _____

Show your ideas by writing, drawing, pointing or speaking. An adult can record your words.

You may use a fictional character. You can pass on a personal question and still practise the skill.

1. Recognise useful conditions

Mark each as supportive / needs changing.

- A supervisor demonstrates a new tool safely.
- People mock a worker who asks a question.
- The task list shows who can help.
- Feedback names the next step calmly.

2. Compare Alex's workplaces

Use the resource card. Name two useful conditions and one repair.

- Place A helps Alex because...
- A second helpful condition is...
- Place B should change...

My learning record

Lesson 4 · Continue your thinking

3. Complete a workplace-values card

Use yourself or Alex. Name two helpful conditions and give reasons.

- Condition 1... helps because...
- Condition 2... helps because...
- Respect, safety and fair treatment remain expectations for everyone.

Useful words

value: Something a person considers important. / belonging: Feeling accepted and able to take part. / respect: Treating people with care and listening seriously. / support: Help or a change that enables someone to participate.

Exit check

Name two helpful workplace conditions and explain one.

My next step

One thing I can practise or improve:

Adult record: response method _____ support _____ evidence _____

Skills I already use

Autumn 1 · Lesson 5 · How can an everyday activity show a work skill?

Name (optional): _____ Date: _____

Show your ideas by writing, drawing, pointing or speaking. An adult can record your words.

You may use a fictional character. You can pass on a personal question and still practise the skill.

1. Match the actions

Match each action to a skill from the bank.

- Explained the display plan clearly.
- Shared the measuring and arranging jobs.
- Checked the list before starting.
- Asked staff about a safe replacement for a missing item.

2. Make three evidence strips

Use your own safe examples or Sam. Mark which you use.

- Action 1... shows...
 - Action 2... shows...
 - Action 3... shows...

My learning record

Lesson 5 · Continue your thinking

3. Transfer one skill

Choose one skill and explain another task where it could help.

- The skill is...
- It could help in... because...

Useful words

transferable: Useful in more than one task or place. / communication: Sharing and understanding information. / teamwork: Contributing with others to a shared task. / organisation: Planning and keeping track of steps or materials.

Exit check

Give one activity, one skill and the action that links them.

My next step

One thing I can practise or improve:

Adult record: response method _____ support _____ evidence _____

Jobs for people like me - challenging stereotypes

Autumn 1 · Lesson 6 · What should we use to judge whether a job is worth exploring?

Name (optional): _____ Date: _____

Show your ideas by writing, drawing, pointing or speaking. An adult can record your words.

You may use a fictional character. You can pass on a personal question and still practise the skill.

1. Sort four statements

Write requirement / stereotype and explain one.

- A repair task needs careful checking.
- Only men can work with tools.
- A care task needs safe, respectful communication.
- Quiet people cannot contribute to a team.

2. Challenge the comment

Use Noor's card. Replace the group assumption with evidence.

- The assumption says...
- The evidence shows...
- We should check...

My learning record

Lesson 6 · Continue your thinking

3. Make an exploration card

Choose Noor or another supplied fictional example.

- Role or area worth exploring...
- Two relevant skills or tasks...
- One question about learning or access...

Useful words

stereotype: A fixed assumption about a group of people. / requirement: Something genuinely needed for a particular role or task. / suitability: How a person's skills, interests and needs relate to a task. / evidence: Information that supports a judgement.

Exit check

Challenge one career stereotype with a reason.

My next step

One thing I can practise or improve:

Adult record: response method _____ support _____ evidence _____

My vocational profile

Autumn 1 · Lesson 7 · How can I bring my evidence together and choose a next question?

Name (optional): _____ Date: _____

Show your ideas by writing, drawing, pointing or speaking. An adult can record your words.

You may use a fictional character. You can pass on a personal question and still practise the skill.

1. Gather the strongest evidence

Use earlier sheets or Sam's full card.

- Three strengths, with one action as evidence.
- Two interests and one transferable skill.
- Two useful working conditions or supports.

2. Create the profile

Write or draw a one-page profile using the headings below.

- Good at / evidence.
 - Enjoys / works best with.
 - Two job areas to explore / reason for each.

My learning record

Lesson 7 · Continue your thinking

3. Set one first target

Choose a small action with help and a review point.

- I will find out...
- I can ask/use...
- I will check this by...

Useful words

vocational profile: A short record of strengths, interests, preferences and possible next steps.
/ provisional: Open to change after new experience or information. / target: A specific next step to work towards. / review: Look again and update using evidence.

Exit check

Name one area to explore, an evidence-based reason and a next step.

My next step

One thing I can practise or improve:

Adult record: response method _____ support _____ evidence _____
