My evidence-based profile

GROW Careers · Page 1 of 4 · Keep the profile open to change.

Name or fictional character: _____ Date: _____

Mark one: my own profile / fictional case analysis. You may write, draw, point or speak. An adult may record your words.

Four strengths

- |          |          |
|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 2. _____ |
| 3. _____ | 4. _____ |

---

Evidence example 1

Context + specific action + strength or skill shown. Include a result only if known.

---

Evidence example 2

Use a second action. State any support accurately; do not invent experience.

---

Interests, values and useful conditions

Name two interests, two priorities and something that supports participation.

---

Possible sources: current National Careers Service role profiles; actual provider information; school careers staff. Verify current details rather than assuming a route or support is available.

WEEK 7 / PROFILE TEMPLATE

My next action and review

GROW Careers · Page 4 of 4 · Keep the profile open to change.

Name or fictional character: _____ Date: _____

Mark one: my own profile / fictional case analysis. You may write, draw, point or speak. An adult may record your words.

First area to investigate

Which area comes first, and why? Link the decision to evidence.

A manageable next action

What will you do? What source or person can help? Follow school arrangements for any external contact.

---

Review point

When will you check progress? What evidence will show the enquiry moved forward?

---

What might change my mind?

Give one possible finding that would make you revise the shortlist. Unknown does not mean unsuitable.
