Weekly outcome

Develop a character with voice and movement.

Today I can

I can use my chosen voice and move.

I can try one helpful change.

I can log what I kept and why.

Words for this lesson

scene: One short part of a story.

role: The part you play.

cue: A sign that it is your turn.

change: To make one part different.

Working safely

Use a made-up story. Keep your own space. Stop on the open hand. You can sit, stay silent or direct. You may share with just the adult.

Choose a route

Supported

Pick your role or direct the adult.

Use the three short lines with hand cues.

Try one pause or move change.

Keep your choice. Tell or show why.

Independent

Use your chosen voice and move.

Try the scene with clear turns.

Get one notice from a listener.

Test one change and log your reason.

Aspire

Do the same core scene.

Keep the role clear when the plan changes.

Test two ways to cue the last line.

Explain which cue helps the scene most.

Model step 1

Read all three lines, using a hand cue for each turn.

Model step 2

Repeat the last Keeper line with no pause, then with one short pause.

Model step 3

Say: I keep the pause because the new choice is clear.

Model step 4

Ask the pupil to cue the adult's three turns and confirm the pace.

Now make your own

Choose your role. Try a short scene. Change one thing.

The adult model is an example. Your arts log must show your real choice.

The changed table

The Keeper says, "My table has moved." The words come fast. The hands stop by the chest. The Keeper then asks, "Can you help?"

Are the first words fast or slow?

What small hand move did the Keeper use?

The changed table

The Keeper says the same words slowly. One open hand points to an empty spot. There is a short pause. The Keeper then asks, "Can you help?"

What has changed in this version?

Which version fits your Keeper? Why?

Make your own choice

I notice ___.

I could use ___ in my own scene because ___.

These are invented class models. They are not pupil work.
