Scheme outcome

Rehearse and refine our performance.

Today I can

I can rehearse my own part.

I can choose one cue or pose to change.

I can keep my choice in my arts log.

Words for this lesson

rehearse: Try your part before the show.

refine: Make one part more clear.

cue: A sign to start or change.

feedback: What a watcher saw or heard.

Working safely

Use a made-up story. Keep your own space. Stop on the open hand. You can sit, stay silent or direct. You may share with just the adult.

Choose a route

Supported

Use the three den story parts.

Choose a role with the adult.

Pick one cue or pose to change.

Try it with help.

Point to your own choice for your log.

Independent

Rehearse the three parts in order.

Ask a watcher what they saw.

Choose and test one change.

Keep the feedback and your own part.

Say what to try next.

Aspire

Use the same three-part task.

Try two ways to give one cue.

Ask which helps the group most.

Choose one and say why.

Model step 1

Show wide hands, close hands and a small roof. Say: First, next, last.

Model step 2

Give the last cue before the model is ready. Say: That cue was too soon.

Model step 3

Repeat. Check readiness and give one calm cue. Hold at most three comfortable seconds.

Model step 4

Ask: Which ending could you follow? Keep the watcher's actual reply and name the one change.

Your own task

Choose your role. Try a short scene. Change one thing.

The adult model is an example. Your arts log must show your real choice.

The den with a clear cue

The group point to a wide space. Their hands move close to show a small space. The director waits until all are ready, then points to the word Start. The group show a small den. Each still pose lasts three comfortable seconds.

What does the director check?

How does the cue help the group?

The den with a clear end

The group try the same three parts. A watcher cannot see the last pose. The group turn their hands towards the watcher and try again. The watcher sees a small roof. The story order stays the same.

What did the group change?

How could we check our end pose?
