Scheme outcome

Rehearse and refine our performance.

Today I can

I can rehearse the three parts.

I can test one change from a real comment.

I can name my role and next step for the show.

Words for this lesson refine: Make one part more clear.

rehearse: Try your part before the show.

viewer: A person who watches.

ready: Set to start when the cue comes.

Working safely

Use a made-up story. Keep your own space. Stop on the open hand. You can sit, stay silent or direct. You may share with just the adult.

Supported

Hear one real watcher note.

Pick a cue or pose to change.

Try the story with the adult.

Choose your role and cue for next time.

Point to what changed for your log.

Independent

Use real feedback to choose one change.

Rehearse and check what the watcher sees.

Keep or change the tested feature.

Agree your role and cues for next week.

Log your own part and next step.

Aspire

Complete the same rehearsal task.

Compare the first and later trial.

Say how one change helped the viewer.

Choose one small check before the show.

Model step 1

Show a small roof pose facing away. Ask what the watcher can see.

Model step 2

Use the actual reply. Say: I will turn the pose towards you.

Model step 3

Repeat the same end pose facing the watcher. Freeze for at most three comfortable seconds.

Model step 4

Ask what is clear now. Say: I keep this change if it helps. Next week is the show.

Your own task

Choose your role. Try a short scene. Change one thing.

The adult model is an example. Your arts log must show your real choice.

Compare two performance examples

The den with a clear cue

The group point to a wide space. Their hands move close to show a small space. The director waits until all are ready, then points to the word Start. The group show a small den. Each still pose lasts three comfortable seconds.

What does the director check?

How does the cue help the group?

The den with a clear end

The group try the same three parts. A watcher cannot see the last pose. The group turn their hands towards the watcher and try again. The watcher sees a small roof. The story order stays the same.

What did the group change?

How could we check our end pose?
