Lesson

Perform our story about a new plan

Creative Arts · GROW · Spring 2 Week 5 · Monday 22 March 2027 · P6

Year A · Explore · Theme Resilience & Change

Scheme outcome

Perform for an audience.

Today I can

I can use my agreed role and cues.

I can perform or direct for a real class or invited staff audience.

I can record my own part and real feedback.

Prepare

For up to five pupils: books or arts logs, pencils, actual outlines, trials and skill goals if available.

Clear personal spaces or safe seats; smaller story spaces remain imagined.

Audience limited to the class and invited staff who are actually present.

No outside guests, public or family audience; no invitations, devices, props or costumes needed.

Retain actual share notes and any real feedback for Wednesday's closing review.

Cover route

This first slot is the performance lesson. Use the real four-part smaller-show-space outline or create a fresh small one today. Confirm roles and actual audience, rehearse once, then share during Create. Only class members and invited staff may watch or listen. Keep private, seated, silent and directing routes. Record actual contribution, audience and feedback; mark uncompleted sharing pending with a next action. Store evidence for Wednesday.

Arrival 3 minutes

Say: Today is the first slot of our final week and the performance lesson. Confirm who from the class and invited staff is actually present. There are no outside guests, families or public audience. Choose a role and audience route. Agree quiet sound, clear personal space and the open-hand stop cue.

Look for: Each pupil confirms a role and access route. The actual allowed audience is identified without assumptions.

Fallback: Offer a seated silent or adult-directed share to one class member or invited staff member. A pupil may pass on the wider group share.

Check and response: A private share within the allowed audience is valid. Record direction as direction. No share means pending; it is never recorded as a completed performance.

Starter 3 minutes

Say: Use the real outline about a smaller imagined show space: first wide moves, then a smaller space, then ideas and a small new move, then a clear end. Reuse actual pupil choices, not a claimed memory of absent sessions. If needed, make this four-part outline fresh today and agree one small role.

Look for: Pupils know the sequence and their own contribution. Missing prior work starts fresh with today's date.

Fallback: Use four hand cues and let a pupil direct the adult. A two-role version can still show the change and response.

Check and response: The response is a new safe plan after the imagined space changes. Do not physically narrow the working area or recreate distress.

I do 6 minutes

Say: Model one spoken and one silent version from the two fictional cards. Keep movements within a safe personal space. Show a clear pause at the choice and a final held pose. Check after the model: what evidence would show your own contribution, rather than only that the group performed?

Look for: Adult models clear performance choices and the need for individual evidence. Pupils identify their own role, chosen cue, line, move or direction.

Fallback: Adult performs under a pupil's chosen cues. Ask for one point to the selected move and confirm the pupil's reason.

Check and response: An individual role note and the pupil's own confirmed choice show contribution. A group photograph alone does not show every learner's decisions.

We do 6 minutes

Say: Try a short rehearsal with performer, cue keeper and narrator or director roles. Rotate one choice so each pupil owns a contribution. Hinge: our plan names an invited staff listener, but they are absent. Can we log them as the audience? If uncertain, point to who is really here and choose a real allowed listener instead.

Look for: The run has clear roles and a focused listener question. Audience recording matches actual presence.

Fallback: Use a private adult-directed trial and a listener from the class or invited staff who is present. Keep the record brief and accurate.

Check and response: No. Record only actual listeners at the share. Choose someone present from the allowed audience, or mark the share pending and agree a next action.

Create 14 minutes

Say: Use this slot for the actual performance. Share the original smaller-show-space story in a pair, small group or private directed version. Confirm the real audience and one skill to notice. Perform or direct the four parts, then hear one actual feature-based notice if offered. Record each learner's role, choice, reason, actual audience, date and support. A learner who does not share keeps an honest pending entry with the next action; do not invent a stand-in audience or feedback.

Look for: A real accessible performance or directed share is made to the class and invited staff only, or an honest pending record is retained. Each learner's contribution is separate from the group result.

Fallback: Pupil directs a seated adult to show the four-part story to one present class member or invited staff member. A silent hand cue can carry the whole role.

Check and response: Example only: I was the cue keeper. I held the pause before our new move. One class member noticed the clear end. Record this only if those events actually occurred.

Review 5 minutes

Say: Ask each maker to confirm their part, choice and any actual notice. No feedback yet is an acceptable entry. Distinguish a pupil's own view from a listener's words. Reserve the final two minutes to clear the space and keep the original plan, trials and actual share note together for Wednesday.

Look for: The record contains real contribution and feedback or a clearly stated gap. Own view and audience response are not confused.

Fallback: Adult asks one prompt at a time and reads the note back. A point, sign or sketch can confirm the chosen feature.

Check and response: I think the pause helped is the maker's view; the listener said I saw the new move is feedback. Both may be useful but should be labelled accurately.

Exit 3 minutes

Say: Complete a real arts-log entry or confirm an adult observation. Keep the source of feedback clear. Wednesday is for reviewing the performance and closing the evidence list. A completed performance or log does not automatically complete the award.

Look for: Dated individual entry records actual work and support, or pending evidence with a specific next action. No completion claim is made.

Fallback: Adult records exact confirmed words or gesture meaning. A photo or recording is not required.

Check: Example only: I directed a silent point to the word Change for one invited staff listener. Next I will practise a clearer end. Use the learner's actual contribution and audience.

Evidence and review

Retain a dated note of each pupil's real role, choices and work or direction, actual audience when sharing occurred, real feedback if given, and support used. Keep an honest gap for anything not done. A photo or recording is optional and follows local consent procedures. A group product never replaces the individual contribution record.

Misconceptions

A planned guest is an audience member - Only record a class member or invited staff member who actually watched or listened.

The audience decides all our choices - Listen to an actual notice, then give your own reason for a kept or changed choice.

A directed share is the same as acting it - Keep the pupil's real directions; do not claim they performed an adult's moves or voice.

Questions

foundation: What is your real part in the piece?

middle: Which cue or skill helps the audience follow the new plan?

higher: What evidence separates your own contribution from the group result?

Drama access and safety

Creative Arts · GROW · Spring 2 Week 5 · Monday 22 March 2027 · P6

Safety

All props and story spaces are imagined. Keep movement within each person's own clear space; no den building, objects to climb on, stage combat, lifting, touching, blindfolds or breath holding. Hold a comfortable pose for about three seconds, breathe normally, then relax. Keep exits clear. Quiet sound stays at talking level or below. Record directed work as direction; do not claim the pupil physically or vocally performed an adult's action.

Emotional and sensory access

Agree the open-hand stop signal, clear personal spaces and quiet return route. Pupils may perform seated, speak, sign, use small silent moves or direct an adult. A private share with one member of the class or invited staff is valid. Offer a pass on the group audience. No personal disclosure, contact, running, sudden sound, darkness, costumes or forced facial expressions.

Planned adaptations

Cognition And Learning: Use one cue at a time. Rehearse the three or four story parts with a short model. Give two concrete choices, then fade the prompt. For reflection, sort one real item at a time under A, B, C or D; leave an honest gap if evidence is missing.

Communication And Interaction: Allow pointing, signing, a sketch, speech or an adult scribe. Give processing time. Read dictated words back and let the pupil correct them. Do not assess eye contact, accent or facial expression. Use I chose ... because ... and Next I will ... .

Semh: Keep all stories invented and low stakes. Let the pupil choose a role and amount of sharing. A pause or request for help can be a planned choice in the story. Agree a calm return cue. Review evidence without ranking pupils or comparing attendance.

Sensory And Physical: Offer seated hand poses and a silent directing role. Keep clear personal spaces. No pupil is moved into a pose. Offer a quiet private audience within the class or invited staff. An observation note can replace a photo or recording.

Eal: Plan in any language. Model first, next, last and change with gestures. Let pupils use their own language to explain a choice before adding a short English label. Check meaning before writing a confirmed arts-log note.

The award and evidence

Both pathways work at Explore. GROW retains an optional Bronze-stretch layer, labelled Optional next level stretch on pupil tasks. Retain only actual evidence. These lessons and a completed checklist do not automatically complete the award. Review the complete real portfolio and record any gaps with a next action.

Resilience can include pausing, asking for help, changing a plan and trying again. Do not ask pupils to recreate personal change, hide feelings or work through pain.

Optional next level stretch

Creative Arts · GROW · Spring 2 Week 5 · Monday 22 March 2027 · P6

Task

Use your real skill goal. After the share, say what happened. Which choice helped? What would you try next? You can speak, point or draw.

Evidence

Keep your own goal, real practice note, actual share and your own view. Keep feedback only if it happened.

Optional scope

This extra skills and reflection record may support later work at the next level. It is optional for Explore. The full real portfolio still needs review for the award.

Support

Pupil links an actual skill goal to a real contribution, gives their own view and identifies a next step without inventing a completed trial.

Use a private class or invited staff listener. Adult records confirmed choices and actual support; directed work is labelled as direction.
