Communication and asking for help

Unit: Resilience & Change — Work-ready resilience

Theme: Resilience & Change. Five teaching weeks. Week 5 is the closing lesson and brings rows 26 and 27 together. Group: up to five learners. Supported is the default.

Exact lesson outcomes

I can ask for clarification, report a problem or speak to a customer/colleague using appropriate language.

Source: BUILD Careers scheme, Spring 2 rows 24. Focus and outcomes supplied verbatim in the current brief.

Prepare and purpose

Teach useful habits with invented, unnamed workplaces. Books, pens, Support Cards, Vocabulary Mat and Evidence Sheet. Print cards as reusable references. No write-on pupil sheets, internet, login or personal phone is needed. Read the exact outcome aloud and explain the short goal.

Where this leads: clear questions and reports help people learn tasks and work with others.

Thread tags: SMSC S/So; British Values IL/MR. Respectful speech, a private choice of response and safe help-seeking are practised.

Forty minute sequence

Phase	Min	Main action
Arrival and retrieval	5	Get your book. Write the date and title. Point to ASK, TELL or HELP. A worker hears: Put it over there. What could they ask?
I do	8	Listen: 'Which tray do you mean?' Then: 'So these cups go on this tray. Is that right?'
We do	10	Help the group ask a clear question. Help the group tell a lead worker about a spill. Choose the best words. Give one reason, or point to the clue.
You do	12	In your book, choose a route. Write or say words a worker could use.
Review and exit	5	Read one answer back. Make one word or sentence more clear. A worker does not know which shelf to use. What could they ask?

Teaching and checks

Arrival and retrieval 5 minutes

Show the three words ASK, TELL and HELP. Read the goal aloud. Let pupils point, say or write one word. Explain that each made-up scene is in an unnamed workplace. Pupils may watch a model instead of acting. Read: 'A worker hears: Put it over there.' Ask what the worker needs to know. Accept a short question or a point to the unclear words. Say that asking a question can help work go well.

I do 8 minutes

Model the worked example. Say the need, ask one short question, listen, then say the next step back. Model a calm tone without demanding eye contact. Show the difference between guessing and checking. Check for understanding: Which words ask where the items go?

We do 10 minutes

Use scenarios 1 and 2. Build one question and one problem report as a group. Write the exact pupil words. Model the lead worker's reply, then invite one pupil to say the safe next step. Pupils can use a voice, a card or a short book response. Use the hinge. Every pupil chooses A, B or C before discussion. If all choose B and explain that it checks the task, move on. If any pupil chooses another answer, model 'Which box do you mean?' and check again with the parallel hinge. Keep all liquids and tools as paper scenes.

You do 12 minutes

Offer Supported, Independent or Aspire cards. Pupils work in books. They may say answers for an adult to note. Keep the key goal the same across tiers. Do not require a pupil to act as a difficult customer. Use scenarios 3 and 4 for transfer. Use three brief response trials: ask for clarification, report a problem, and reply to a customer or colleague. Record the actual response and prompts for each trial.

Review and exit 5 minutes

Ask pupils to check one message: Is it kind? Is it clear? Does it say what is needed? Give one specific verbal feedback point and one next step. Invite a small edit. Do not equate a loud voice or eye contact with good communication. Read the exit scene. Accept one appropriate question. Ask the pupil to name who could help. Record the route, support and next step on the Evidence Sheet. Offer evidence to the Communication portfolio.

Model and fade

Pause and face the task. Ask: 'Which tray do you mean?' Listen or watch the lead worker show the tray. Check: 'So these cups go on this tray. Is that right?'

Change the model to boxes on a shelf. Pupils fill the gap: 'Which ___ do you mean?'

Hinge and parallel recheck

Main: A worker is told to put a box 'there'. They do not know where. Which reply helps? A: I will guess. B: Which place do you mean, please? C: You never tell me anything. Key B.

Parallel: A worker cannot hear the task. Which reply helps? A: Please can you say that again? B: I will do a different job. C: I will walk away without telling anyone. Key A.

If every pupil chooses B and gives or points to a useful reason, move to the route task. Otherwise re-model one question and use the parallel hinge.

Access evidence and feedback

Supported

Choose words from the bank. Say or copy one question. Complete one report with what and where. Choose a kind reply for the customer. Words: tray · box · spill · door · shelf Start: Which ___ do you mean? There is ___ by ___. Please can you help? I am not sure. I will ask for help.

Independent

In your book, write a question for scene 1. Write a report for scene 2. Say what and where. Write a kind reply for scene 3. Read one reply back and check it.

Aspire

Complete the three Independent messages. Use scene 4. Write a clear reply to the colleague. Explain how a question can help keep work safe. Improve one reply after feedback.

Planned adaptations

Cognition & Learning: Read one scene at a time. Model one short message and leave the frame in view. Use the same ASK, TELL and HELP words across the lesson.

Communication & Interaction: Allow pointing, a prepared phrase, a written message or an adult scribe. Give silent thinking time. Do not demand eye contact or roleplay.

SEMH: Use fictional scenes. Allow a watch-first route and a brief quiet pause. Keep feedback about the words used and the next step.

Sensory/Physical: Keep scenarios as paper or screen scenes. Seat pupils where speech is clear. Offer large print and a suitable writing or pointing method.

EAL: Plan in any language. Pre-teach tray, spill, shelf and colleague with real objects or simple teacher demonstration. Rehearse one short English frame.

Prompt ladder and adult focus

1 Point to the place or instruction. 2 Ask a short question. 3 Rephrase the instruction. 4 Provide a scaffold or choice. 5 Model the first step only, then return the task.

I do: Point to the question words and give wait time.

We do: Ask 'What does the worker need to know?' before offering a frame.

Independent: Use the least help needed. Record the pupil's own words and the level of support.

Record what is shown

Keep the actual response to: Clarification request; Problem report; Customer or colleague response. Record date, work reference, response route, usual access, supplied answers and prompt level. A pass or missing work is not yet seen; say which. Do not count the adult model as independent work.

VF verbal feedback; WS worked with support; I independent; NS next step; // self-edit; ? read back; E actual evidence saved; R responded. R follows Voice and Audience, one NS and the pupil reply in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode. Add to Careers Portfolio. Offer to the Communication portfolio.

Evidence may contribute to the unit award. Staff check actual evidence; the lesson does not automatically confirm an award. Ask a trusted adult for a private talk. Point to HELP, write or use your aid. You may pass, pause and return with help. No personal story is needed.

Use the normal concern route if a pupil shares a worry. Listen without probing or promises of secrecy. Keep private concerns outside portfolio work.
