Teamwork, boundaries and conflict

Unit: Resilience & Change — Work-ready resilience

Theme: Resilience & Change. Five teaching weeks. Week 5 is the closing lesson and brings rows 26 and 27 together. Group: up to five learners. Supported is the default.

Exact lesson outcomes

I can identify a respectful response when I disagree with someone at work.

Source: BUILD Careers scheme, Spring 2 rows 25. Focus and outcomes supplied verbatim in the current brief.

Prepare and purpose

Teach useful habits with invented, unnamed workplaces. Books, pens, Support Cards, Vocabulary Mat and Evidence Sheet. Print cards as reusable references. No write-on pupil sheets, internet, login or personal phone is needed. Read the exact outcome aloud and explain the short goal.

Where this leads: people at work need to share views, keep safe limits and ask for help when a problem is hard to solve.

Thread tags: SMSC S/So; British Values IL/MR. Respectful speech, a private choice of response and safe help-seeking are practised.

Forty minute sequence

Phase	Min	Main action
Arrival and retrieval	5	Get your book. Write the date and title. Choose PAUSE, SPEAK or ASK FOR HELP. Which words help? 'You are wrong!' or 'Can we check?'
I do	8	Listen: 'I think the boxes go on the shelf. Can we check the task?'
We do	10	Help the group choose kind words. Practise saying, 'Please give me space.' Choose a safe, respectful reply. Give a reason, or point to the clue.
You do	12	In your book, choose a route. Choose or write words that show respect and keep a clear limit.
Review and exit	5	Read one reply back. Make one small change if it would help. Two workers want to use the same space. What could one say?

Teaching and checks

Arrival and retrieval 5 minutes

Read the goal. Show three safe choices: pause, speak, ask for help. Explain that all scenes are made up. Pupils do not need to share a real conflict. Allow a watch-first response. Read two replies to 'I think the boxes go here': 'You are wrong!' and 'I think they go on the shelf. Can we check?' Ask which reply helps the team and why. Make clear that people may disagree without being unkind.

I do 8 minutes

Model the worked example. Pause, say a different view in a calm way, then check the task with the lead worker. Explain that respect does not mean doing something unsafe or accepting unkind words. Check for understanding: Which words state a different view without blame?

We do 10 minutes

Use scenarios 1 and 2. Sort helpful and unhelpful replies. Co-write one respectful disagreement and one clear boundary. Model asking the lead worker for help. No pupil is asked to shout, threaten or play an aggressor. Use the hinge. Every pupil chooses A, B or C first. If all choose B and identify the clear limit and help route, move on. Otherwise re-model 'I cannot do that yet. Let us ask for help.' Use the parallel hinge before route work.

You do 12 minutes

Offer the three tier cards. Pupils use books to choose and build respectful replies to scenes 3 and 4. Permit short spoken answers or scribing. Assess the choice and reason, not performance in roleplay.

Review and exit 5 minutes

Ask pupils to check one reply: Does it say the point? Does it avoid blame? Is help needed? Give one clear feedback point. Invite pupils to change one unhelpful phrase. Reinforce that stepping away safely and seeking help can be respectful. Read the exit scene. Accept a clear, respectful reply with checking or help. Record pupil voice, audience, support and next step on the Evidence Sheet. Offer evidence to the Communication portfolio.

Model and fade

Pause and take one slow breath if it helps. Say: 'I think the box goes on the shelf.' Ask: 'Can we check the task together?' If they still cannot agree, ask the lead worker for help.

Use the same stem for two workers who want to start different jobs: 'I think ___. Can we check ___?'

Hinge and parallel recheck

Main: A colleague asks a worker to use a tool they have not been shown how to use. Which reply is safe and respectful? A: Fine. I will try it. B: I have not been shown how. Let us ask the lead worker. C: You are silly. Do it yourself. Key B.

Parallel: A colleague keeps standing too close after a worker asks for space. What could the worker do? A: Shout an insult. B: Keep quiet even if they feel unsafe. C: Move to a safe place and ask the lead worker for help. Key C.

If every pupil chooses B and gives or points to the clear limit or help route, move to the route task. Otherwise model a safe limit again and use the parallel hinge.

Access evidence and feedback

Supported

Choose a respectful reply for scene 1. Choose a clear limit for scene 3. Say or copy one reply. Point to the person who could help. Words: pause · check · space · help · lead worker Start: I think ___. Can we check? I have not been shown how. Please can you help? Please give me some space.

Independent

In your book, choose a helpful reply for each scene. Write one respectful disagreement. Write one clear limit. Say when a worker should ask for help.

Aspire

Complete the Independent task. Write two respectful replies for scene 4. Choose the better reply and say why. Explain why respect can include saying no.

Planned adaptations

Cognition & Learning: Show one scene and two choices at a time. Use the same pause, speak and ask-for-help sequence. Leave a short sentence frame visible.

Communication & Interaction: Allow a point, written reply, prepared phrase or scribe. Give thinking time. Do not judge eye contact, facial expression or volume as the outcome.

SEMH: Use third-person invented scenes. Do not request personal accounts or acted conflict. Allow watch-first participation and a quiet pause. Praise the specific respectful choice.

Sensory/Physical: Use paper or screen tool scenes only. Keep voices calm. Offer large print and a clear view of the response choices.

EAL: Plan in any language. Explain disagree and boundary with simple teacher examples. Rehearse 'Can we check?' and 'Please give me space.'

Prompt ladder and adult focus

1 Point to the place or instruction. 2 Ask a short question. 3 Rephrase the instruction. 4 Provide a scaffold or choice. 5 Model the first step only, then return the task.

I do: Point to the respectful words and the help route.

We do: Ask 'What does the worker need?' before offering a frame.

Independent: Give wait time. Note the pupil's choice, reason and support; do not script the whole reply.

Record what is shown

Keep the actual response to: Respectful response to disagreement; Boundary and safe help step. Record date, work reference, response route, usual access, supplied answers and prompt level. A pass or missing work is not yet seen; say which. Do not count the adult model as independent work.

VF verbal feedback; WS worked with support; I independent; NS next step; // self-edit; ? read back; E actual evidence saved; R responded. R follows Voice and Audience, one NS and the pupil reply in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode. Add to Careers Portfolio. Offer to the Communication portfolio.

Evidence may contribute to the unit award. Staff check actual evidence; the lesson does not automatically confirm an award. Ask a trusted adult for a private talk. Point to HELP, write or use your aid. You may pass, pause and return with help. No personal story is needed.

Use the normal concern route if a pupil shares a worry. Listen without probing or promises of secrecy. Keep private concerns outside portfolio work.
