Our listening choices

You can point or speak.

You can ask to hear a part again.

You may ask for a quiet pause.

The Easter story

Christians tell a story about Jesus.

Jesus died. His friends felt sad.

An adult will read the short story.

The story brings hope

His friends found the tomb empty.

Christians believe Jesus rose to life.

Easter celebrates this belief.

A new start

The friends felt sad at first.

Then the story brought hope.

Hope means wishing for good to come.

Our talk

The story brought hope when ____.

Tell a partner or point to a card.

We can learn about a belief without sharing it.

Your response

Supported: hear and choose a story card.

Independent: order A, B and C.

Aspire: explain the egg as a sign of new life.

Our exit

Tell or show one part of the story.

Which part brings hope?

Use your book, speak or ask for a scribe.
