Hope and change

Talk about feelings of hope and change.

Resilience & Change

Our talk choices

We will use made up stories.

You can point, speak or pass.

You may ask for a quiet pause.

A change in a group

A learner will join a new group.

They wonder where to sit.

They hope for a kind partner.

Feelings can change

An adult shows a seat and a first task.

The learner may still feel worried.

More than one feeling can fit.

Hope and help

Hope means wishing for good to come.

A clear next step may help.

No one has to feel happy about a change.

Our talk

They may feel ____ because ____.

A kind next step could be ____.

Talk about the made up learner.

Your response

Supported: choose a feeling and a hope.

Independent: add a kind next step.

Aspire: explain two feelings and a source of hope.

Our exit

Name a feeling a change may bring.

What could help the learner?

You can talk about a made up person.
