New starts in beliefs

Compare 'new start' ideas across beliefs.

Resilience & Change

Our learning choices

You can listen, point or speak.

We will learn about named beliefs.

You may ask for a quiet pause.

Christianity and Easter

Christians believe Jesus rose to life.

Easter is linked with hope and new life.

An egg can be a sign of new life.

Judaism and a new year

Rosh Hashanah is the Jewish New Year.

Many Jews think about a fresh start.

Apple and honey can show a sweet new year.

Same and different

Both can bring hope for a new start.

They are different festivals.

They happen at different times of year.

Our comparison

Both can be linked with ____.

Easter is about ____.

Rosh Hashanah is about ____.

Your response

Supported: match each festival and belief.

Independent: give a link and a difference.

Aspire: explain a sign and keep the beliefs clear.

Our exit

Name one festival and its belief.

Are the two festivals the same?

We can compare with respect.