Describing langar

Use subject vocabulary to describe a practice.

Resilience & Change

Belief and practice

A belief is an idea someone holds to be true.

A practice is something people do.

We will learn about a Sikh practice.

Sikhism and langar

Langar is a free community meal.

It is offered at a gurdwara, a Sikh place of worship.

It is open to people of different backgrounds.

Seva and equality

Seva means selfless service.

People may help prepare, serve or clear up.

Langar can express equality and service.

A description with meaning

Practice: people share a free meal.

Vocabulary: langar and seva.

Meaning: care and equal respect.

Our classroom task is a fictional plan.

Words practice and meaning

Word	Meaning	Example	Link
Langar	Free meal	Meal for all	Equal respect
Seva	Selfless service	Helping serve	Care for others
Gurdwara	Sikh worship place	Langar offered	Community

Learn about the practice. No worship or meal is required.

Our talk

In Sikhism, ____ means ____.

During langar, people may ____.

This expresses ____ because ____.

Use the source cards to check the words.

Your response

Supported: use langar, seva and equality.

Independent: describe langar with three words.

Aspire: explain equality and suitable seating.

No food is prepared or served in this lesson.

Review and exit

Use one subject word in a clear sentence.

Is a belief an idea or an action? Explain.

Practices can vary between communities.