Visual step cards

Autumn 2 · Week 2 · Lesson 2 · Wednesday 11 November 2026

I can keep my part with another part and use feedback to improve.

1. Recall: Read A or B. Point to your taps and rests.
2. Join: Wait for the count-in. Play your part with the other part.
3. Listen: Ask what stayed together and what needs care.
4. Retry: Use one next step. Try again and compare the result.

You can tap softly, point, sign, speak, draw or write. Ask for a pause or a quiet space. Follow the stop cue.

Autumn 2 · Week 2 · Lesson 2 · Wednesday 11 November 2026

I can keep my part with another part and use feedback to improve.

I can enter after the shared count-in.

I can keep my part while a different part plays.

I can use one comment and show the effect on another try.

pulse — The even beats shared by both parts.

rehearse — Practise a part so it becomes more secure.

cue — A clear signal that tells us when to act.

feedback — A useful comment about what happened and what to try.

Count every rest for one full beat. Watch the count-in and stop signal.

Two parts, one pulse

Autumn 2 · Week 2 · Lesson 2 · Wednesday 11 November 2026

Keep your own score visible. The two patterns fit the same four beats.

A: 1 TAP · 2 REST · 3 TAP · 4 TAP.

B: 1 REST · 2 TAP · 3 REST · 4 TAP.

Both tap on 4. Use this to check that the parts line up.

Lost your place? Follow silently. Rejoin on the next 1 cue.

Autumn 2 · Week 2 · Lesson 2 · Wednesday 11 November 2026

Recall

Show part A softly or silently from last time.

Where is its rest, and how long does it last?

In your book

1. Choose A or B and point to it with an adult.
2. Rehearse your own part once with the other part silent.
3. Wait for the count-in and join for two repeats.
4. Use a silent pointer or next-beat-1 cue if you lose your place.
5. Choose one helpful comment, respond and try again.

Check before you finish

Which part did you keep, and where were its rests?

How could you rejoin after losing your place?

What did the feedback help you change or check?

You can tap softly, point, sign, speak, draw or write. Ask for a pause or a quiet space. Follow the stop cue.

Recall

Show part A softly or silently from last time.

Where is its rest, and how long does it last?

In your book

1. Recall your chosen part without copying the other player.
2. Join A and B for two repeats after one count-in.
3. A listener checks the start, full rests and shared tap on beat 4.
4. Choose one next step and record your response.
5. Try again with less cueing and compare what happened.

Recall

Show part A softly or silently from last time.

Where is its rest, and how long does it last?

In your book

1. Keep A or B for four repeats while the other part plays.
2. Direct a silent count-in and a safe beat-1 re-entry cue.
3. Explain why beat 4 can help the players check alignment.
4. Swap parts after a new count-in, keeping their rests accurate.
5. Use specific listener evidence to judge whether your practice change helped.

Compare the two original parts

Autumn 2 · Week 2 · Lesson 2 · Wednesday 11 November 2026

Compare these two original class parts. They are teaching examples. Count each box for one equal beat. A: TAP REST TAP TAP. B: REST TAP REST TAP.

Both parts use ___ equal beats.

The rest is on beat ___ in part A and beats ___ in part B.

When both parts play, we tap together on beat ___.

I can keep my part by ___.

These are original class patterns. They are not works by named artists and do not count as an artist encounter. Compare what you can hear or show; do not invent a performance record.

My short book tasks

Autumn 2 · Week 2 · Lesson 2 · Wednesday 11 November 2026

Look back

Show part A softly or silently from last time.

Where is its rest, and how long does it last?

What next step did you really choose?

Show the stop cue before the group starts.

Look and choose

Both parts share four equal beats. A taps on 1, 3, 4. B taps on 2, 4. On which beat do both tap?

My choice and reason

At the end

Which part did you keep, and where were its rests?

How could you rejoin after losing your place?

What did the feedback help you change or check?

My next step

Respond in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode.
