Two ways to show your thinking

Stay safe online; recognise risks and my digital footprint (Safer Internet Day).

All stories are invented. Use a book, the typed page, an aid or exact scribe. No personal account or story is needed.

Choice 1 Privacy and reply map

Use story B on Support Card 2. Make a map with the same checks below. A simple list is fine.

Choice 2 Advice note

Use story C on Support Card 3. Write a short note for the invented learner. Include the same checks below.

Shared success checks

Spot a privacy risk. Explain that online posts can be copied and leave a trace. Give a kind, safer step with a reason. Say how to get help.

Words and starters

privacy · footprint · consent · kind · help
The risk is ... . They could ... because ... .
A copy may ... . If something goes wrong, they can ... .

A visible model

The learner can remove the routine details and not post the other learner without asking. A private setting can limit who sees a post, but people may copy it. Kind words can stay about the card model. If a reply causes concern, they can stop replying and ask a trusted adult in private for help to report or block it.

Your work

Keep first thinking. Use one next step and reply in your own colour or usual mode. You do not have to show a personal pledge. You can pass or use a supported pause.

Type instead

Choose map B or advice C. Use the blank fields or the advice note field. Both have the same goal. Type no names, accounts or personal events.

Words: privacy, footprint, consent, kind, help.
Start: They could ... because ... .
Model from A: Remove routine details. Copies may still be made.

Save using the usual routine, lesson code and work reference. Show the adult privately. A book, aid or scribe is also valid. A scribe reads back quietly so you can correct it.

Staff evidence record

Use a work code, not a name. Record story learning only. No personal pledge or concern details on this sheet.

A pass is unobserved. Keep access apart from answer help. E is actual work saved. R follows Voice, Audience, NS and reply. Offer to the Communication portfolio. Assess story knowledge, not personal conduct or safety.

Any disclosure goes to the safeguarding lead through the school procedure. Listen calmly. Do not probe or promise secrecy. Keep concerns out of shared work and learning records. For an urgent concern, get on site staff help at once. Keep the agreed supervised pause route.
