

My strengths

How can an example show a strength?

I can name at least three strengths and give an example of one.

Use your own safe examples or the fictional case. Share only what you choose.

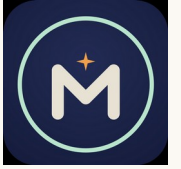

Words that help

STRENGTH

Something a person does well or is developing confidence in.

SKILL

An ability learned and practised.

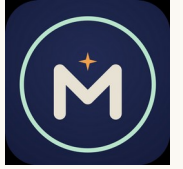

Start here

Is “I am good at everything” useful evidence?

What could a person show instead?

Choose: a big claim / a clear example.

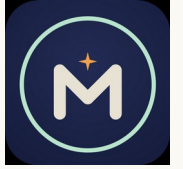

Strength + example

A strength is a useful quality or capability.

A skill can be learned and practised; strengths can develop too.

An example helps us see what someone did.

Which is clearer: “organised” or “made a checklist before the task”?

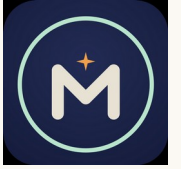

Alex finishes an agreed job

Alex agreed to label the group's three trays.

Alex labelled all three and told the group they were ready.

Which strength is supported?

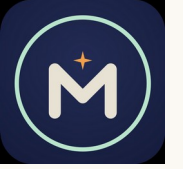

Find the clue

Sam checked a recipe after noticing a missing step.

Taylor used a prompt card, asked a question and continued.

Choose a strength for each and point to its clue.

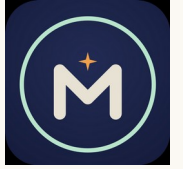

Support and strengths

A: “Using help means you have no strengths.”

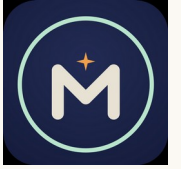

B: “Using the right help can show a useful strategy.”

Which statement is fairer?

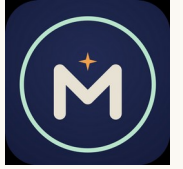

Your three tasks

1. Choose three strengths: Choose for yourself or the fictional learner Rowan.
2. Match action to strength: Choose a strength and underline the action that supports it.
- 3. Prove one strength: Write, draw or explain an example. Mark it personal example or fictional case.

Use the worksheet and resource cards. Work one task at a time.

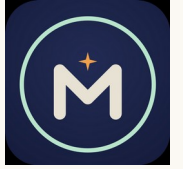

Check and improve

I can name three strengths.

I can match an action to a strength.

I can give one example that supports a strength.

Choose one part to make clearer. Which detail supports your answer?
