Creative Arts · GROW · Autumn 2 · Week 7 · ART-GROW-A2-W07-P1

I can verify a link between my arts learning and an actual record.

□ I can distinguish a claim from its supporting record.

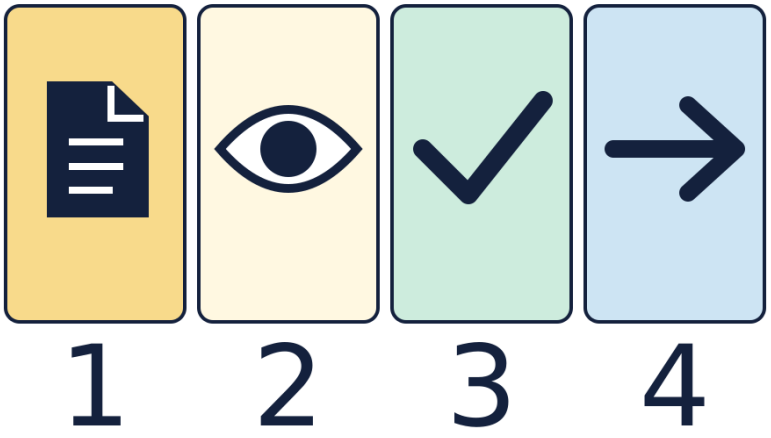

□ I can check that a locator opens to the matching work.

□ I can identify what remains unverified.

Reference sheets

Match a claim to real work

The page is a real record. The eye means look at the record. The tick means the link was checked. The arrow means a link or next action.

Keep an honest log

Open the right page, match the detail to your words, then keep the real link. Leave a gap open when the work or reply is missing.

Worked model

Ask the question

Watch the model: connect an account of learning to an actual record.

Find the evidence

Identify the specific feature that supports the claim.

Explain the link

Follow its locator and explain what the record can show.

Check what we know

Verify the matching item, or retain a clear gap and one retrieval action.

Shared investigation

Find a real cue sketch, art piece or practice note.

Choose one thing the work shows we learnt.

Point to the detail as we give a short account.

Find the same item from its page note or file title.

Compare a checked link with a gap. Keep each one clear.

In your book, keep the work, the link and one short note.

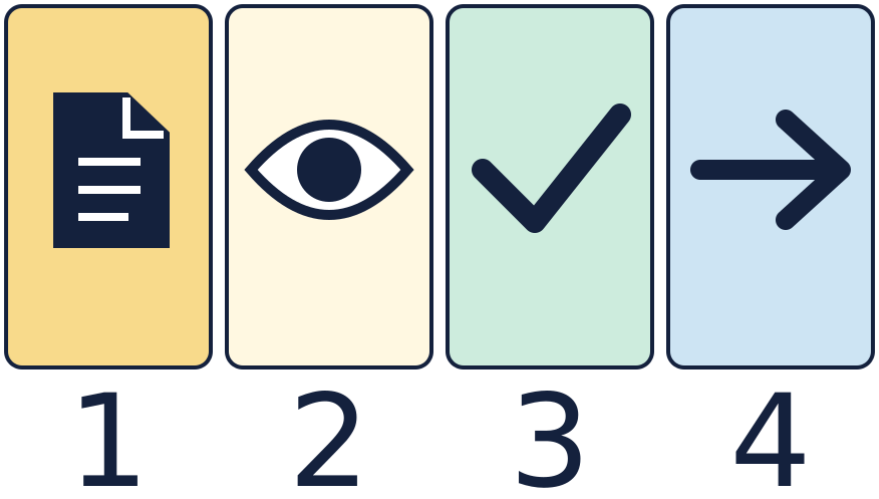

Decision checkpoint

Which link can we keep as checked?

A · The page opens to the work that fits the claim.

B · The box is ticked but the work is not found.

Catch up for absence or access

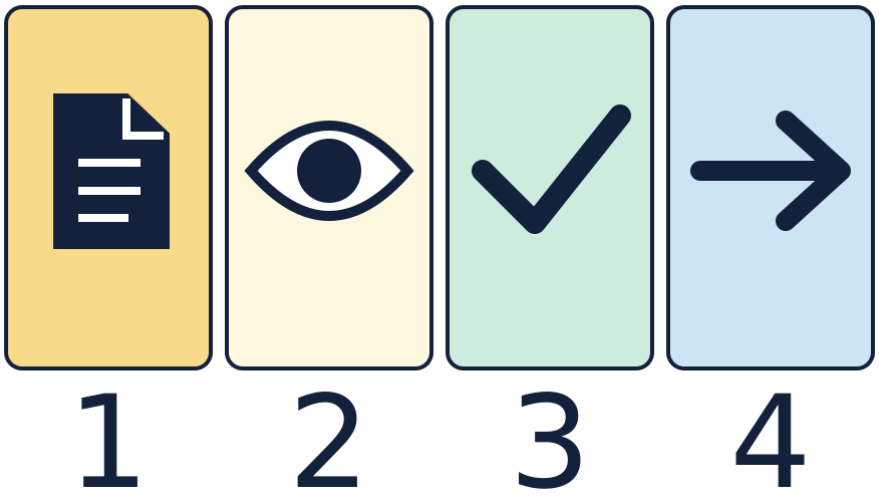

Watch the model: connect an account of learning to an actual record.

Try the first step with the group or point through it quietly.

Arrival · Supported

Start with the picture. Point or make a mark in your book.

1. How many pages can you see?
2. Point to the first box.
3. Point to the last box.
4. Which word fits: ready, help or pause?

Green · Ready, Amber · Help, Red · Pause. Choose in private or pass.

Find one real link

In your book

Point, speak, sign, draw, write or choose. You may pass.

Choose a real piece of your work with an adult.

Point to a part you liked or a skill you learnt.

Find the page that shows it.

In your book, keep the page note and your own words.

Keep it for Lesson 2. Leave any gap open.

I learnt ___. This part shows ___.

In your book, keep the real link, your own words and any gap to check.

You may point to real work, draw a clue, or tell an adult what to record. A quiet share has the same value. You may pass.

Staff mark I · S · C beside the task.

Review and improve

Show the real detail behind your note.

Use one next step to make the link clear.

Check the same page once more.

Optional: show or tell an adult what you changed after feedback. You may use your usual response mode or pass.

Exit ticket

What did you learn? Show the real work that fits.

What do you do if the page shows the wrong work?

Pupil voice

What helped you most today, or what would you change next time?

Point, speak, sign, draw, write or choose. You may pass.

Compare the value of two records

In your book

Point, speak, sign, draw, write or choose. You may pass.

Compare two actual records supporting a claim about your learning.

Explain what each record supports and what remains uncertain.

Justify which record provides the clearer link to the specific skill.

Open both locators and distinguish verified links from gaps.

Keep a balanced account and one retrieval action for any missing record.

Compare the records. Explain why one supports the claim more clearly.

The stronger link is ___ because ___. It cannot show ___.

In your book, keep the real link, your own words and any gap to check.
