Reference sheets

Match a claim to real work

The page is a real record. The eye means look at the record. The tick means the link was checked. The arrow means a link or next action.

Keep an honest log

Open the right page, match the detail to your words, then keep the real link. Leave a gap open when the work or reply is missing.

Worked model

Ask the question

Watch the model: share a specific achievement using the verified record.

Find the evidence

Ask what the listener understood and preserve the genuine response.

Explain the link

Use that response to refine one detail, then share that part again.

Check what we know

Verify the locators, count actual files and retain explicit open actions.

Shared investigation

Bring back a checked item from Lesson 1.

Give a short share and point to its detail.

Ask what the agreed listener understood. Keep the real reply.

Use one next step, then check the link or keep a gap.

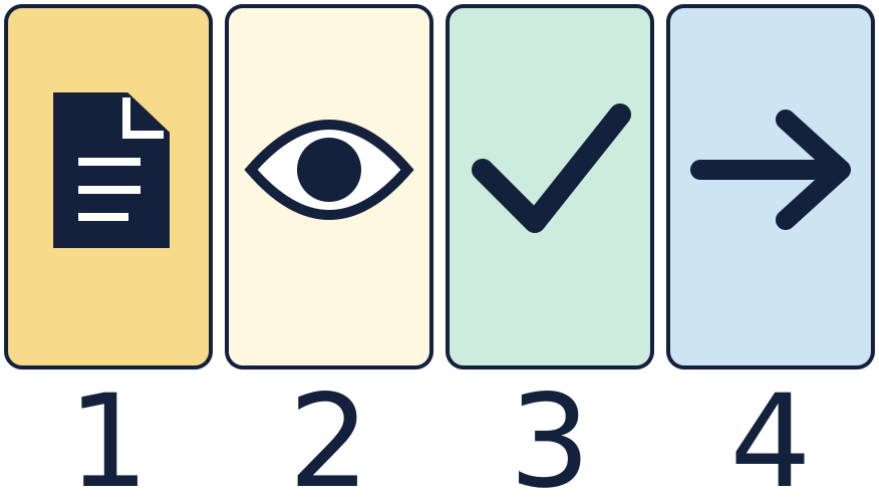

Decision checkpoint

Which reply can we keep in the log?

A · What the listener really said, signed or showed.

B · What we hope the listener would say.
