What helped you most today, or what would you change next time?

Point, speak, sign, draw, write or choose. You may pass.

Read or scribe the pupil’s own words. Record actual support and one work reference.

Guidance.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not a service of remembrance or worship. Nobody must share personal beliefs, family history or loss. Wearing a symbol or keeping silence is always optional.

Formative practice. Record actual actions, support and gaps.

Accept the pupil’s own example or a pass. Record their own words and actual support.

Teaching script 1.

Arrival · 4 min.

Invite a private regulation check. Green · Ready, Amber · Help, Red · Pause. Return to learning: quiet pause, usual aid, one short task, then rejoin at the current step. Offer a quiet start, usual aid or pass. Use the cue and accept the pupil’s usual communication mode.

Starter · 3 min.

Starter question 1 revisits last week. Take one minute for recall and reveal. Is making a celebration pattern in class worship? Cue: Class · learn. Expected: No. It is class learning about a celebration, not worship. Then ask: What two things can a red poppy stand for? Expected: Remembering people and hope for peace. Use the class symbol cards. You need not share a belief or loss.

Teaching script 2.

I do · 5 min.

Link a sign to memory and hope. Read what the symbol or sign shows. Decide if it shows hope, memory or both. Give one reason for your choice. A lamp in the dark can stand for both. It helps people remember and shows hope. A red poppy can show memory and hope for peace. A stone or bench gives a place to remember. Silence is one choice, not the only way.

We do · 8 min.

Which label fits the red poppy best on our cards? Ask for a choice and a reason before revealing. A. The red poppy stands for both remembering and hope for peace. Why is silence only one way to remember and not the only way?

Teaching script 3.

You do · 13 min.

Read the symbol cards before sorting. Keep all examples on the class cards so nobody is asked to share personal loss or family history. Support reading and scribing while leaving the sorting choice with the pupil. In your book, sort the signs into hope, memory or both. Pick one sign and draw or name it. Write Hope is shown by __ because __. Supported route. Pick one sign of hope or memory from the cards. Match it to hope or memory and finish one short stem. Independent route. Sort three signs into hope, memory or both. Write how one sign shows hope. Aspire challenge: Explain how one sign stands for both memory and hope. Say why people remember in different ways. Choice route. Pick a route and a way to reply. Show one sign of hope or memory and its meaning.

Teaching script 4.

Review · 4 min.

Check your sort and sentence. Add why your chosen sign shows hope. Optional. Respond to feedback with an adult. You may pass. Mark R only after the pupil has responded to feedback with an adult. Keep the first response and any change separate. Edit in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode.

Exit · 3 min.

Ask the two route checks. What helped you most today, or what would you change next time? Point, speak, sign, draw, write or choose. You may pass. Accept the pupil’s own example or a pass. Record their own words and actual support. At check-out, record E for … against the pupil's target.
