Clue cards A and B

A · Good questions

“What do you do?” “Which feast means most to you? Why?” Ask about the guest’s own life.

A guest speaks for one person. They do not speak for a whole group.

B · Questions to avoid

Do not say “Why do you lot...?” Check what the guest wants to talk about. They can pass. You can just listen. Ask about their own life.

If in doubt, ask an adult first.

Clue cards C and D

C · a Humanist celebrant: a real celebrant

A Humanist learned to lead naming rites. Her child asked her to lead one on a beach. The rite is a way to greet a child. It is not a faith rite. A family might plant a tree or read a poem.

This gives one person’s view. Some Humanists may see it in a new way.

D · Three areas

Belief: what do you believe? Practice: what do you do? Community: who do you share it with?

Some can fit more than one group.
