Teacher answers · Arrival

Arrival · Supported

Point to the picture that matches the top one.

The lower left picture matches the top one.

Arrival · Supported

Which meaning fits value?

Something a person thinks is important in how to live

Arrival · Supported

Give one way to show respect when values differ.

For example, accept their choice without mocking it.

Arrival · Supported

Does respect mean you have to agree?

No. Respect does not require agreement.

Arrival · Independent

Point to the picture that matches the top one.

The lower left picture matches the top one.

Arrival · Independent

Which meaning fits value?

Something a person thinks is important in how to live

Made by Matt

Arrival · Independent

Give one way to show respect when values differ.

For example, accept their choice without mocking it.

Arrival · Independent

Does respect mean you have to agree?

No. Respect does not require agreement.

Arrival · Aspire

Point to the picture that matches the top one.

The lower left picture matches the top one.

Arrival · Aspire

Use value in an accurate example.

A value is something a person thinks is important in how to live. In Card A, one pupil puts family first and leaves the club for a meal. Accept a relevant accurate example.

Arrival · Aspire

Give one way to show respect when values differ. Which detail supports your answer?

For example, accept their choice without mocking it. In Card B, the pupil who stays says, “Hope the meal is good,” even though he made a different choice.

Arrival · Aspire

Does respect mean you have to agree?

No. Respect does not require agreement.

Made by Matt

Starter

What do you notice in the drawing?

Family is linked to shared meal.

Starter

How can you show respect when values differ?

Accept the other person’s choice without mocking it.

Starter

How can you show respect when values differ?

Accept the other person’s choice without mocking it.

Starter

Does respect mean you have to agree?

No. You can respect a person’s choice and disagree with it.

I do · 1

How can you show respect when values differ?

Accept the other person’s choice without mocking it.

I do · 1

Which source helps us begin?

Use card B. One pupil stays at the club and wishes the other a good family meal.

Made by Matt

I do · 2

Which detail in the card can help with the question?

One pupil stays at the club and wishes the other a good family meal.

I do · 2

What does this clue help us say?

The reply accepts the choice and avoids mockery.

I do · 3

How could I explain the link?

One person values a family meal. The other values staying until the club ends.

I do · 3

How can I start my answer?

The source shows ____. This helps me explain ____.

I do · 4

Does respect mean you have to agree?

No. You can respect a person’s choice and disagree with it.

I do · 4

What is one limit to keep in mind?

Respect never requires accepting harm.

Made by Matt

Teacher answers · We do

We do

Which reply needs changing?

“You’re letting us down for a dinner?” mocks the family meal.

We do

How can you rewrite it?

“I’d have stayed, but I understand why the meal matters to you.”

We do

Does the new reply mean you agree?

No. It accepts the person’s choice without mocking it.

We do

Which clue will you use?

One pupil stays at the club and wishes the other a good family meal.

We do

What is one limit?

Respect never requires accepting harm.

We do decision checkpoint

Which choice fits the evidence?

I understand why the meal matters to you.

Made by Matt

We do decision checkpoint

What evidence helps you decide?

It accepts a choice even though the other pupil chose differently.

Made by Matt

Teacher answers · You do

You do · Supported

Check the detail you used.

One pupil stays at the club and wishes the other a good family meal.

You do · Supported

Check your reason or limit.

The reply accepts the choice and avoids mockery. Respect never requires accepting harm.

You do · Independent

Check the detail you used.

One pupil stays at the club and wishes the other a good family meal.

You do · Independent

Check your reason or limit.

The reply accepts the choice and avoids mockery. Respect never requires accepting harm.

You do · Aspire

Check the detail you used.

One pupil stays at the club and wishes the other a good family meal.

You do · Aspire

Check your reason or limit.

The reply accepts the choice and avoids mockery. Respect never requires accepting harm.

Made by Matt

You do · Choice

Check the detail you used.

One pupil stays at the club and wishes the other a good family meal.

You do · Choice

Check your reason or limit.

The reply accepts the choice and avoids mockery. Respect never requires accepting harm.

Made by Matt

Review and improve

Is my detail accurate?

One pupil stays at the club and wishes the other a good family meal.

Review and improve

Does my reason follow from the source?

The reply accepts the choice and avoids mockery.

Review and improve

What could I check or change?

Respect never requires accepting harm. Edit in the same colour, on the same page.

Exit · Supported

How can you show respect when values differ?

Accept the other person’s choice without mocking it.

Exit · Supported

Does respect mean you have to agree?

No. You can respect a person’s choice and disagree with it.

Exit · Independent

How can you show respect when values differ?

Accept the other person’s choice without mocking it.

Made by Matt

Exit · Independent

Does respect mean you have to agree?

No. You can respect a person’s choice and disagree with it.

Exit · Aspire

How can you show respect when values differ? Use one clue.

Accept the other person’s choice without mocking it. One pupil stays at the club and wishes the other a good family meal.

Exit · Aspire

Does respect mean you have to agree?

No. You can respect a person’s choice and disagree with it. Respect never requires accepting harm.

Exit · Choice

Point, draw, sign or tell an adult. How can you show respect when values differ?

Accept the other person’s choice without mocking it.

Exit · Choice

Does respect mean you have to agree?

No. You can respect a person’s choice and disagree with it.

Made by Matt