This week's spark

We build for someone real.

Arrival Task

1) What makes something an ASSET rather than just a thing we made?

2) Argue for the option you DIDN'T vote for as if it were your first choice.

3) Design a vote that's fair even when friends want different things.

Today at a Glance

Key Question: What are we building today — and where does the evidence go?

We Do 1: Wordsearch — settle in

COMMUNITY, PROJECT, ASSET, PLANTER, BENEFIT, VOTE, TEAM, LOCAL

We Do 2: Match the Word to What It Looks Like on Site

Draw lines to match:

COMMUNITY · PROJECT · ASSET · PLANTER · BENEFIT · VOTE

Something we leave behind that keeps giving. · The people who share a place and its future. · Every voice weighing the same, once. · A built home for plants — one of our options. · Planned work with a start, an end and a point. · The good our asset does, and for whom.

Scaffolding – Stretch

Stretch prompts

Your second-choice option — in what situation would it have been the RIGHT choice? Why does 'we build for someone real' change how careful the work has to be?

Independent Work – Stretch

Task: As a team, weigh the options and vote for our community asset, then say who it's for and why.

Stretch: argue for your second choice as if it were your first.

Exit Ticket – Stretch

1) Your second-choice option — in what situation would it have been the RIGHT choice?

2) Why does 'we build for someone real' change how careful the work has to be?

3) What does accepting a group decision you voted against actually look like, in behaviour?

SUPPORTED Choose from the picture menu and place your vote token. Then set a “who it helps” face card beside it — no writing needed. Lundy Loop — this lesson

Space → Voice → Audience → Influence. The adult's first job is Space: regulate before you educate.

Space	The Project Board is a real-stakes space — our partner sees it — but it's still safe: nothing goes up without your say-so, and 'pass' is allowed.
Voice	Say which asset you would back, and who you are thinking of when you say it.
Audience	Our community partner reads this board — you are writing to them, not just to us.
Influence	The vote on this board is the decision. What the room agrees is what gets built.

Closing the loop: out loud, as a class, is enough here. Any inclusion counts — a nod, a word, a pointed finger. If a pupil wants theirs written down, an adult scribes it in their words. Pass is always allowed.
