

Knowledge Organiser (GROW W1): Choose my Young Duke challenge

ASDAN Aut 1 · 2026–27 · Workbook outcome: Choose a Young Duke challenge area.

Key Word	Definition
Watch me do it:	Watch me do it: I take the kindness card. Just past comfortable? Not really, I already help people. Can I start here? Yes. So it goes low. Now eco. Just past comfortable? Yes, I never sort the recycling. Can I start here? Yes, there are bins in every room. That goes high.
Now watch the last two:	Now watch the last two: independence. I already cook at home, so it is not much of a stretch. It goes below eco. Enterprise. Selling something is a big stretch for me, but there is no sale this term, so it goes below eco too. Eco is my top. My reason is that I would have to learn what goes where.
Fixing one together:	Fixing one together: a sheet says “Eco” and nothing else. We add the reason: I would have to learn what goes in which bin. We add the first step: ask where the bins are. Now an adult can sign it off, because it shows a choice and not just a word.

Key Facts

- A challenge is a stretch you choose on purpose. If you did not choose it, it is a job, not a challenge.
- Nobody chooses for you. An adult can help you rank, but the choice is yours.

Arrival Task

What we already know about a challenge

1) A challenge is a stretch you choose on purpose. If you did not choose it, it is a job, not a challenge.

2) Nobody chooses for you. An adult can help you rank, but the choice is yours.

A pick and a ranked pick

Two learners chose an area last year. Here is what each one wrote. Sheet A: "Eco. My friend picked eco." Sheet B: "Eco. I have never sorted the recycling and I would have to learn what goes where. Independence was second because I already cook at home."

We Do 1: Put the four cards in order

Cards 1 and 2: kindness is doing something for another person that they did not ask for, and keeping it up. Eco is changing one thing about waste, energy or nature at school, and keeping it going.

Cards 3 and 4: independence is learning to do one thing for yourself that an adult does for you now. Enterprise is making or selling something with a team, and keeping track of what it cost.

The two questions: is it just past comfortable for me? Can I start it here, this term, with what I have?

We Do 2: Add the reason and the first step together

Everyone writes their top card and one reason on their own sheet at the same time. Then we show the sheets together. Nobody reads from a sheet unless the owner says yes.

Exit Ticket – Stretch

1) Read your area and your reason to a partner or an adult. They say back your area and why it is a stretch for you.

2) Did they say a different reason from yours? Then one line needs changing so it says what you mean. Change it. That change is your influence. It belongs to you.

3) SPACE stays available. VOICE is received. AUDIENCE names back exactly. INFLUENCE changes one real next action.
