Comparing two resilience stories

White standard edition

Explore stories of resilience from sacred texts.

Theme Resilience & Change

Your task

1 Listen to Story A and Story B.
2 Use the grid on the next page. Copy it into your book or tell an adult what to scribe. Complete all three rows for both stories.
3 Give two or three short sentences about what resilience can mean to you. Use a story detail.

Our talk

In this story, ____ kept going.
____ helped because ____.
One possible teaching is ____.

Your short response

To me, resilience can mean ____.

One story shows this when ____.
A safe next step could be ____.

You may give a general idea. No personal hardship or statement of religious belief is asked for.

Comparing two resilience stories continued

White standard edition

Comparison grid

Use your book or a scribe. Read one row at a time. For the last row, give one possible teaching supported by a story detail.

Question	Story A Nehemiah	Story B Ayyub
Who kept going?	Your words	Your words
What helped them?	Your words	Your words
What the story teaches	Your words	Your words

Both stories include ____.
One difference is ____.

You can learn about a faith without sharing it. You may hear a story again or ask for a quiet pause.