Same and different worldview responses

Pink supported edition

Compare how two worldviews respond to difficulty.

Our invented situation

An activity changes time. A person feels unsure and needs a new routine. This is about no real person.

Your task

Listen to both cards.
Use the next-page grid, one row at a time.

Your short paragraph

Both examples include ____.
One difference is ____.
Support may help by ____.

Say three or four short sentences. An adult may write them together as one paragraph in your book.

No personal belief or hardship account is needed.

Same and different worldview responses continued

Pink supported edition

Our same and different grid

Point or speak. An adult may scribe your choices in your book.

Aspect	Same	Different
Understanding difficulty	Your words	Your words
Choosing an action	Your words	Your words
Finding support	Your words	Your words

Words to help

planning / prayer / practical help
God’s care / human experience / trusted people religious / non-religious

Use both cards for each row.
People may respond differently within a worldview.