Two festivals and renewal

Pink supported edition

Easter

A Christian festival.

What is celebrated

Christians celebrate their belief that Jesus rose from the dead. This is called the resurrection.

How some people mark it

Many gather for worship, prayer and songs. Some share meals or decorated eggs. Eggs can stand for new life.

What renewal may mean

For many Christians, Easter brings hope and new life through Jesus. It can mean renewed trust in God and a fresh start. Customs vary.

Holi

A festival in Hindu traditions.

What is celebrated

Holi marks spring. In many Hindu traditions, it celebrates good overcoming evil.

How some people mark it

Some meet with family or friends, sing and share food. Many celebrations use coloured powders or water. Customs vary.

What renewal may mean

Spring can suggest new growth. Some use Holi as a time to repair friendships or choose kindness and begin again. Meanings vary.
