Thinking about right and wrong

Talk about what is right and wrong, simply.

Resilience & Change

Our choices

Right  Wrong  Not sure

A reason says why.

We talk about the action.

Card A

A person finds a lost pencil.

They give it back to its owner.

Who does this help?

Card B

A person takes someone else's pencil without asking.

They plan to keep it.

The owner needs it.

Who is affected?

Card C

A person sees someone carrying lots of books.

They ask if help is wanted.

What choice does the other person have?

Card D

A person takes a pencil from a table.

What do we need to know?

Our words

This is right because ____.

This is wrong because ____.

I am not sure because ____.

Our sort

Cards  A  B  C  D

| Right | Wrong | Not sure |
|---|---|---|
| | | |
| | | |

Choose a place for each card. Give one short reason for each.

Your four reasons

A  I chose ___ because ___.

B  I chose ___ because ___.

C  I chose ___ because ___.

D  I chose ___ because ___.

Tell an adult or use your book.

Exit

Choose one card.

Show your choice.

Give a reason.

You may ask for a quiet pause.