Words about choices

White standard edition

An adult can read each word aloud.

right

A fair or caring action.

wrong

An action that treats someone unfairly.

not sure

We need to know more before we choose.

reason

Words that say why we think something.

owner

The person something belongs to.

permission

Someone says it is okay to do something.