Saying sorry

Recognise the value of saying sorry.

Resilience & Change

Our lesson

We will use a faith story and three invented scenes.

You may point, speak, pass or ask for a quiet pause.

No real apology is asked for.

A son returns

Jesus told a story about a son who went away.

He spent his share of family money.

He chose to go back and admit his wrong choice.

The father welcomes him

The father ran to welcome his son.

The son admitted his wrong choice.

Many Christians see God's forgiveness in this freely given welcome.

Scene A

A person takes a pencil without asking.

They say sorry and give it back.

What changes?

Scene B

A person drops shared cards.

They leave them on the floor without saying sorry.

What stays the same?

Scene C

A person takes all the shared pens.

They say sorry but keep them.

What still needs to change?

Our talk

The person says sorry for ____.

They could ____.

This may help because ____.

My practice sentence

I can say sorry by…

Finish one line about an invented scene.

Tell an adult or use your book.

Exit

Choose a scene.

What could help put things right?

The other person may need time.