Saying sorry and putting things right

White standard edition

Recognise the value of saying sorry.

Theme Resilience & Change

Your task

1 Listen to the faith story and three invented scenes.
2 Talk about what changes, stays the same or could help next in A, B and C.
3 Finish one practice line in your book, or tell an adult what to scribe.

Our talk

The person says sorry for ____.
They could ____.
This may help because ____.

Your practice line

I can say sorry by…

Use an invented scene. You are practising words, with no real apology or personal story asked for.

You may point, speak, hear a part again or ask for a quiet pause.
