My caring response

Record a 'caring' response.

Resilience & Change

One action or plan

Choose one of our caring ideas.

It can be a plan or an action you did.

A new plan can be used too.

Ways to record

My choice	How
Drawing	Sketch in your book. Point or explain.
Scribed sentence	Tell an adult your words.

No new photo is needed.

An invented planned response

I planned to offer a turn with a shared item.

It could help someone have a turn.

I felt unsure about my plan.

This example is invented.

An accurate caption

A pupil planned to put a shared book back.
They have not done it yet.

Which caption is accurate?

A I planned to put the book back.

B I put the book back.

Words to help

A plan	An action I did
I planned to ____.	I ____.
It could help ____.	It helped, or may have helped, ____.
I felt ____ about my plan.	I felt ____.

Prompts to help you. One line can combine ideas.

My feeling is my choice

You can say mixed or not sure.

You may keep your feeling private or pass.

There is no right feeling.

My one record

Draw, give a caption or tell an adult your words.

One line can link an action or plan with how it may help.

Use your book. Your feeling can stay private.

My check

Is it clear whether this was a plan or an action?

Does my record show caring?

An adult can read it back.

Exit

Show the part that records your caring response.

You may point or speak.

No home task or photo is needed.
