meets to do a thing	The picture has two boxes. The first is meets to do a thing. The second is you are part of it.
you are part of it	The picture has two boxes. The first is meets to do a thing. The second is you are part of it.
Watch me do it:	Watch me do it: I take the gardening card. Do they meet? Yes, on a day. Do they do a thing? Yes, they plant. So it goes in the first box. I say the doing first. Then I pick the box.
Now watch a harder one:	Now watch a harder one: people on the bus. Do they meet? They are all there at once, but nobody planned it. They do not do a thing together. Second box. Same steps. The doing first, then the box.
group	The chain has three boxes: group, then doing, then lose. The arrows show the order.
doing	The chain has three boxes: group, then doing, then lose. The arrows show the order.
lose	The chain has three boxes: group, then doing, then lose. The arrows show the order.
Finishing it together:	Finishing it together: add the last box. Without one singer the sound is thinner. Without the one who starts, nobody comes in on time. Either is a full third box.

Key Facts

- A group is more than one person doing something together.
- You can be in more than one group at once.
- This class is a group. Everybody in this room is in it.
- Some groups meet to do a thing. A choir meets to sing.
- Some groups you are just part of. Everyone on this street is part of the street.
- Nobody has to say who they live with. That is not what a group means here.

Arrival Task

What we know about groups

1) A group is more than one person doing something together.

2) You can be in more than one group at once.

3) This class is a group. Everybody in this room is in it.

4) Some groups meet to do a thing. A choir meets to sing.

5) Some groups you are just part of. Everyone on this street is part of the street.

6) Nobody has to say who they live with. That is not what a group means here.

Two kinds of group

Here are two answers about groups. Answer A: “A choir is a group. They meet on a day and they sing.” Answer B: “Everyone on our street is a group. They do not meet. They are just all there.”

Try it in your head: a football team. Do they meet to do a thing? Yes. Now: everybody who catches the same bus. Do they meet to do a thing? No. Two kinds.

We Do 1: Sort the cards. Match each group to what it does.

Card 1: the choir. Which box? What do they do together?

Card 2: the people waiting at the stop. Which box? What do they do together?

Card 3: this class. Which box? What do we do together?

We Do 2: Match each group to what it would lose

We match one chain on the board first. Nobody writes yet. Everyone writes the last box on a whiteboard, then we hold up the boards at the same time. The group for this chain is this class. The first two boxes are filled in. Your job is the last one. What would we lose?

Your route

One group. Match it to what it does. An adult may scribe your words, and the words stay yours. Point to the box it sorts into.

The model

Watch me do it: I take the gardening card. Do they meet? Yes, on a day. Do they do a thing? Yes, they plant. So it goes in the first box. I say the doing first. Then I pick the box.

Now watch a harder one: people on the bus. Do they meet? They are all there at once, but nobody planned it. They do not do a thing together. Second box. Same steps. The doing first, then the box.

Finishing it together: add the last box. Without one singer the sound is thinner. Without the one who starts, nobody comes in on time. Either is a full third box.

Check yourself

- Check yourself: did you write what the group does together, not just its name?
- Check yourself: did you sort each group into one of the two boxes?
- Check yourself: is your last box about the group, not about one person being missed?
- Check yourself: would someone who has never met this group understand it?

From the lesson sheet

Groups we belong to

SoW: 'BUILD Weekly - Autumn'!C52 — "Share a group/team/community I belong to."

Learning objective: I can sort groups into two kinds, match each group to what it does together, and name a group I belong to.

No personal disclosure is required. This class counts as a group for every task on this sheet.

Groups and what they do

Group → what they do → which box. The doing is the part that is easy to miss.

The first row is done for you, from the card we sorted together. It is in italics so you know it is not yours. Fill in as many rows below it as you can.

Exit Ticket – Supported

1) Read one group and its doing to a partner or an adult. The listener says back what the group does, in their own words.

2) Did the listener hear a different doing? Then change one word in yours. That change is your influence. It belongs to you, not to them.

3) Did the listener hear just what you meant? Write that down too. A chain that already works is worth noting.

Lundy Loop — this lesson

SPACE stays available. VOICE is received. AUDIENCE names back exactly. INFLUENCE changes one real next action.

Space	means you get room to join in.
Voice	means you get to say it.
Audience	means someone really listens.
Influence	means something changes because of what you said.
